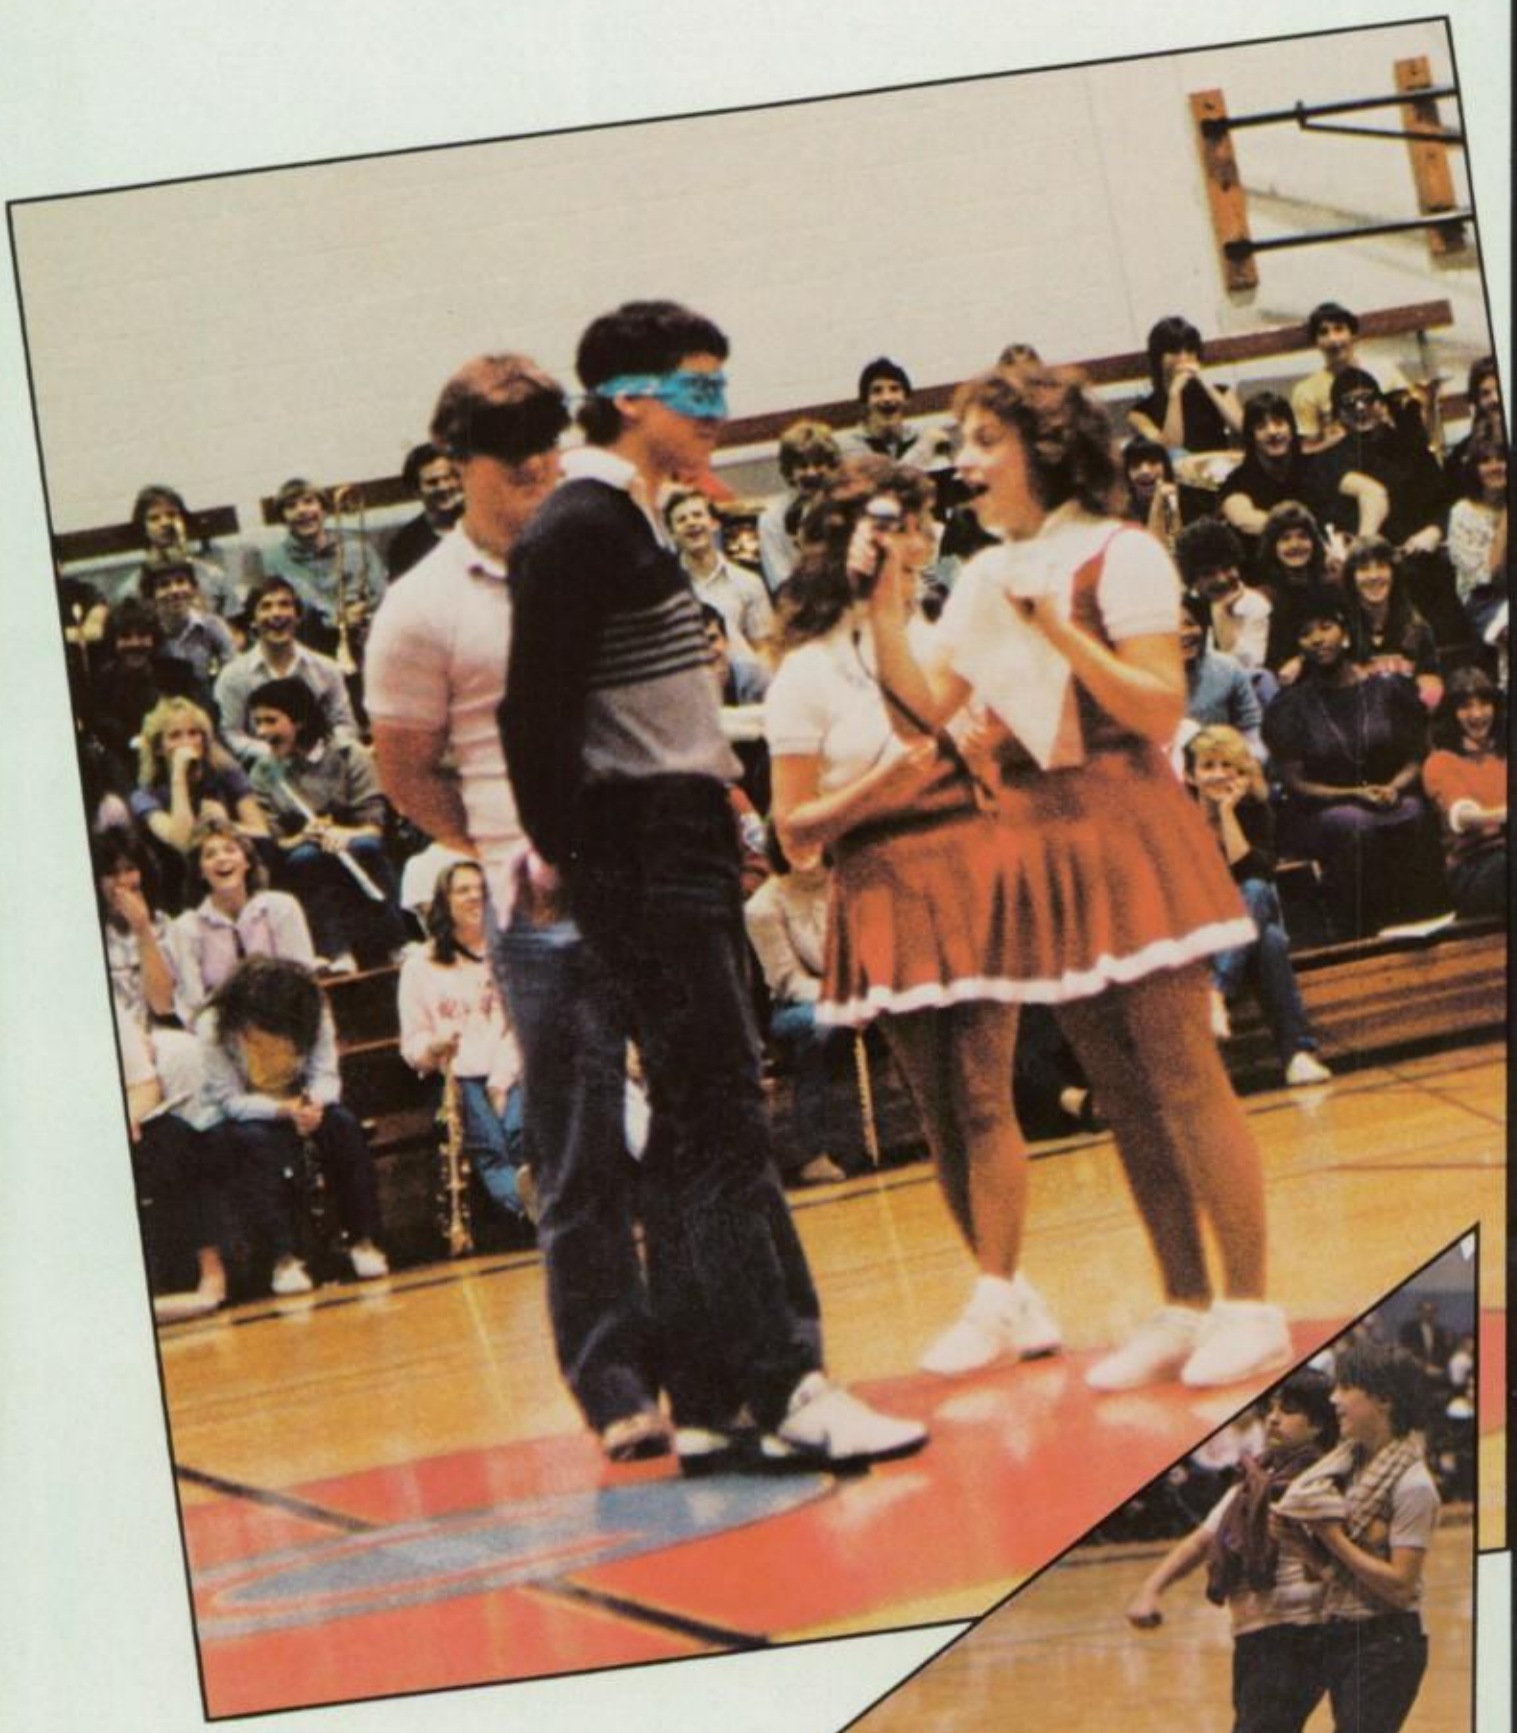
Events



Centennial begins Fall activities

Joyful moments reappear in September, while the CHS student body participates in the many usual fall activities.

Gathering of students at registration started the year off with summer gossip.

The pep assemblies were filled with spirit and determined attitudes of the players and the support of the other students, to help build the enthusiasm.

The participation of these fall activities are very much needed to start the year off with an awesome amount of school spirit.

Elmer celebrates 25 years

From giant silverbells to huge "anniversary cake" floats, CHS showed its Homecoming spirit by making Elmer's Silver Anniversary an unforgettable event.

Activities began Monday, October 15, and continued through Friday, keeping students and faculty in a celebrating mood. "What in the school is it?" captured everyone's attention as did the $25 prize awarded to the scavenger. Office decoration proved to be a fun but laborious event. With a lucky little ingenuity and a lot of hard work, the attendance office sparkled with creativity and decorum. Reg room and club competitions added to the fun and excitement of Homecoming Week.

Half way through the week, tension mounted as the Junior and Senior powderpuff teams prepared to battle it out for the winning title. Wednsday night the girls, clad in red and blue jerseys, fought to the very end with the Seniors emerging victorious.

Finally, Friday arrived and everyone prepared themselves for the Homecoming game and dance. Kelley McKinney received the title of Homecoming Queen while our boys in red, white, and blue defeated the Gresham Gophers 16-10. After the game, the gym filled with students dancing to their favorite tunes. Midnight arrived and the gym slowly emptied. Homecoming was over and only memories would remain.

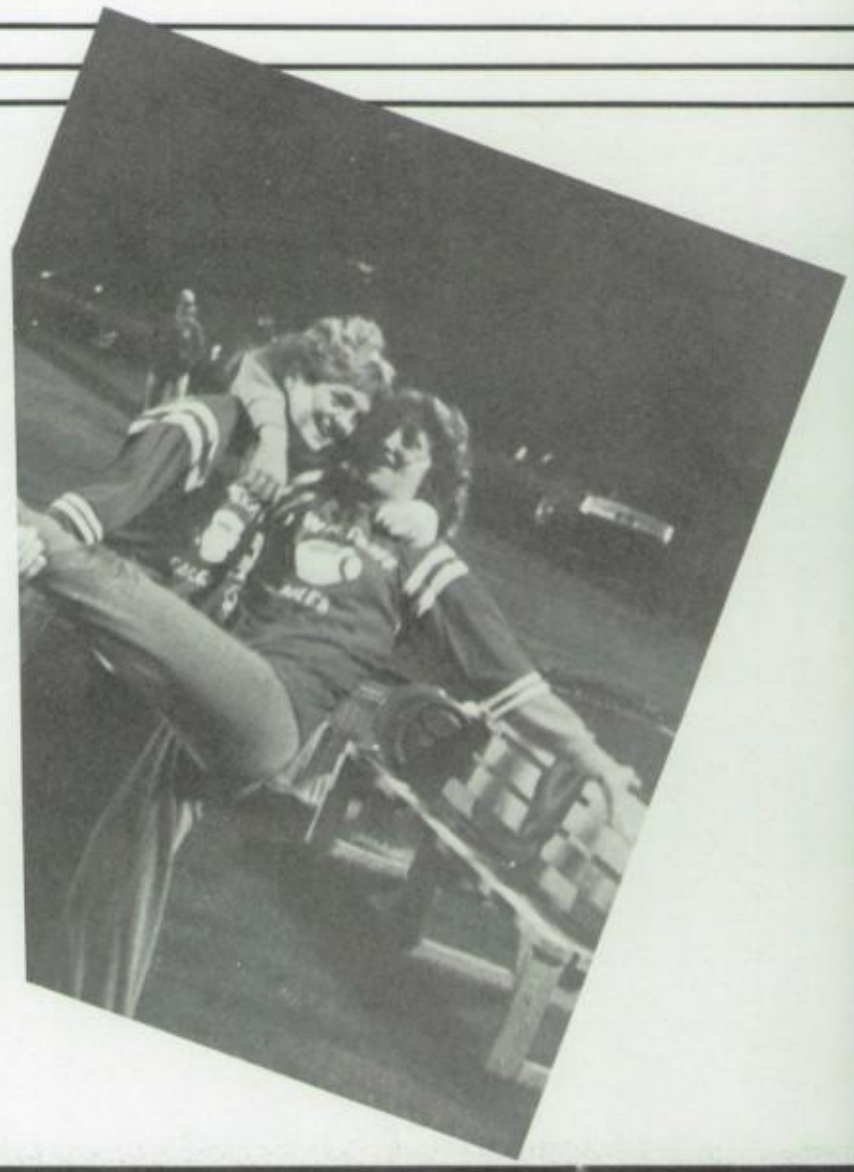
'85 wins again!



Wednesday, October 17, was the night of the 10th Annual Powder Puff game, Juniors vs. Seniors.

The girls blocked, tackled, made touchdowns and slid in the mud during the exciting and competitive game. Final score was Senior 47, Juniors 12.

Both teams had a couple weeks of practice before hand. For some, this was their first taste of football. Coaches for the Seniors were Mr. Baker, Tony Newman, Miss Sheppard, Mr. Dyer and Mr. Scrugham. Coaches for the Juniors were Mr. Pritchard, Mr. Crane and Mr. Bremer.

A few players received special recognition for their outstanding performances. They are Senior Sonya Brandt and Junior Richelle Woods for Most Valuable Offensive Players. Senior Diana Moffitt and Junior Troy Ann Clark were named Most Valuable Defensive Players. Senior Sheri Cathey was named Most Valuable Player for the entire game.

Money earned from the event went to John Starret's Memorial Fund.

'Guys and Dolls'

This year's fall musical "Guys and Dolls" was an excellent performance set during the 30's.

The play had a great cast headed by newcomers Heath Burmeister and Denise DeVoe along with stars Lynn Fischer and Kirk Mouser.

The story begins with Nathan Detroit (Burmeister) looking for a place to hold his big crap game. His 15 year lond fiancee Adalaide (DeVoe) is busy thinking of ways to get Nathan to marry her.

Along comes dashing Sky (Mouser) the biggest gambler around. He'll do anything on a bet. Nathan bets Sky that he can't get the puritan Miss Sarah Brown (Fischer), who leads the local mission band, to become his gal.

Sky goes full force to get Miss Sarah and Adalaide goes full force to get Nathan. Both love stories end in marriage.

The save-a-soul mission band sings a song to convince the gamblers to quit gambling.

Just the two of us . . .

"Just the two of us under the Christmas lights" was the theme for the Christmas semi-formal.

Tradition carried on as girls asked guys to this special occasion. The dance was held at Portland State University in the Smith Memorial Hall on December 15, from 8 until 11 pm.

Deca sponsored the event and also did decorations. D.J. Ken Barry from KBOO, came well prepared with endless records and a light show to make it a memorable and romantic evening spent with your sweetheart!

Slip slidin' away

Many exciting events took place during the winter months at CHS.

The amounts of snow seen during these months created quite a commotion. Snowmen were built and snowball fights took place.

Both, the Varsity boys and girls basketball teams made it to but not through the first round of state. Plus, the wrestling team did an outstanding job.

Putting Drugs Under Control

Faculty, working along with students, implemented a program which would increase awareness about the problems of drug and alcohol abuse. The student body was educated on this subject during two assemblies. John Hughes, drug and alcohol counselor, was the guest speaker at the first assembly. He spoke on the problems chemical dependency can create within the family structure. Also included in the assembly were three students visiting from area high schools who discussed their own problems with dependency.

Former Trail Blazer Kermit Washington spoke at the second assembly. Rather than discuss the drug problem, he felt that an important issue facing students was lack of self-esteem. Through personal experiences, he proved that determination and confidence in one's own self will lead to success. Copy and Layout by Martha Walker, Photos by Greg Johnson

Senior Guys Supreme

Spills and thrills were definitely the theme for the fourteenth annual donkey basketball games. The first game was between the junior and senior guys, with the seniors being the victors. Junior girls came out number one over the senior girls in the second game of this exciting tradition. A championship was then played between the two winning teams and the senior guys, being the winners, proved they really know how to handle donkeys. Senior Terry Player, named most valuable player, showed Centennial that he has a possible future in the sport of donkey basketball. All athletes, along with their animal counterparts, did a wonderful job despite the difficulties in staying on the donkeys. Copy and layout by Martha Walker, photos by Ed Asquith

Science Fair

Science—A Never-Ending Question was the theme for the seventh annual Centennial Science Fair held on April 23. It was a very informative evening with displays ranging from drug and alcohol abuse to computer graphics to a planetarium. There was also a "Science Pursuit" quiz competition sponsored by Mount Hood Community College. Parkrose managed to place first over CHS, Sandy, and Sam Barlow. AP in Ashland

On March 9-10, the junior and senior advanced placement literature classes traveled to Ashland, Oregon to attend the Shakespearean Festival. Supervised by Miss Diane Lathrop, Mrs. Nancy Hoevet, Mrs. Rosemary Grover, and Mr. Rick Miller, the group stayed in the Southern Oregon State College dorm. Although the trip was only for two days, they were able to attend three plays: King Lear, Trelawny of the Wells, and Light Up the Sky. Miss Diane Lathrop described the trip as "worthwhile and fun" and stated that another trip was planned for next year. Layout, Copy, Photography by Martha Walker.

Eaglefest '85

Eaglefest '85, "The Greatest Show on Campus," began its festivities on Tuesday, April 29, making it only four days long.

Bad weather seemed to hamper the spirit and enthusiasm of students and faculty, but the activities went on as scheduled.

In class competition, the sophomores defeated the juniors 750 to 725 points while the seniors took third with 625 points followed by the freshmen with 450. The Thespians were overall victors in the club competitions with 575 points while Band took second with 425. Choir came in third with 175 points and FBLA ended up last with 150 points.

Some of the class competitions included class formations, the community event at Round Table Pizza, tug-of-war, "Elmer's Tank Race," and "The Greatest Footbasket Shot." The four clubs competed in "The Greatest Lip Sync Contest," "A Clown for President" and "The Licorice Show."

Miss Teyler's first period class captured first place in Reg Room competition with Miss Sawtelle's class following in second.

The Slave Auction was again a huge success with Mr. Pritchard as auctioneer. The highest bid was $21 for Tim Cramer and Kirk Wardius. A fashion show was put on to present the student body with the latest in prom wear.

Due to rainy weather, the assembly was held inside. Attendance was down from previous years. The Eaglefest dance held on Friday from 8-11 p.m. ended the four days of festivities. Layout and Copy by Heidi Feist.

"Flowers for Algernon"

The stage of Centennial High School lit up once again as the spring play "Flowers For Algernon" was performed. The story, based on the novel by Daniel Keys, was presented by over twenty five Centennial students on the nights of March 14th, 15th, and 16th.

The play brought forth a final performance for seniors Kirk Mouser, Mike Pfenning, and Marc Turner as they presented their closing performance to the audiences at C.H.S.

"I felt the play went extremely well" exclaimed director, Janer Mouser. "I really feel happy with the talent the underclassmen showed, and I feel the cast really got a message across."

Jason Steen named Mr. Centennial

On May 14, our school held its annual Mr. Centennial contest. This year's winner was Senior Jason Steen.

The many contestants competed for the title and were judged on talent, swimwear, evening wear and a stumping question.

The talent part of the competition proved very entertaining. Kevin Soyk displayed his skills by rolling a burrito. Other talent of our Eagle boys were playing the guitar, singing, acting and much more.

One boy showed up in his p.j's for the evening wear competition which completely delighted the audience.

The evening, chaired by Sally Kane and Jenny Persell, was a success, and Mr. Centennial was a very proud Eagle. Copy & layout by Suzy Simonis Photography by Darren Britton.

Almost Paradise

"Almost Paradise," the theme for this year's 1985 Junior - Senior Prom, will remain in the hearts of many Centennial students for years to come.

Scouters Mountain, a dance hall closely resembling a large lodge, was the scene chosen for this spectacular May 11th event.

Music, provided and presented by radio station KMJK, added a magic touch to the beauty of the entire evening.

Bringing this year's prom to a close was the second annual crowning of the King and Queen in which Jill Helphrey and Tim Cramer were selected to represent their spring court. The other five Princesses' and Princes' consisted of Kathy McMinds, Stephenie Quimby, Robin Turner, Kim Wilson, Michelle Blucher, Skip Hildreth, Jacob Menashe, Mike Spicer, Lonnie Bates, and Mike Kanelis.

Choir tour '85

The 1984-85 choir tour took the 41 members of A'Capella choir north through Washington to Victoria British Columbia.

Tour began May 2 and continued through May 5.

"For the choir trip this year, everyone was excited and awaiting the departing day. Many were more excited about just visiting Canada. The tour was very fun and educational at the same time." stated Dave Evans, choir president.

1. Candi Hieter looks excited about being in Canada. 2. Jerry McDaniel and Rhonda Parker enjoy the scenery. 3. The choir's favorite eating establishment. 4. Mary Koone off on a tangent.

Where's the beef? Although doubtful at first we know now that it's on the Centennial football field. The Eagles started the season out slowly against Beaverton but ended it with a bang by tying for first in the Mt. Hood League and making state playoffs.

The team started with a lot of turnouts but soon after dropped to only the real dedicated football players. As a team, the Eagles were always fired up, one game in which this was very obvious was the Homecoming against Gresham. Cold and rainy, the bad weather didn't keep fans away but it did transform the field into a mudbowl. One highlighted play was that from Carey Guess, his 77 yard run was just one of the two T.D.'s. With three overtimes, the Eagles pulled away from the Gophers to win the Homecoming game 16-10.

To end the season, the Varsity Eagles went to the state playoffs. Lebanon was the only team the Eagles played, with an unfortunate loss of 23 to 8. "They weren't big but they were quick," remarked Steve Hash, who was selected most inspirational. Other awards were given to both Floyd Adam and Wes Freeman for best defensive players. The most valuable award went to Carey Guess and most improved to Tom Leuthauser. "Overall the regular season was a big success but the playoffs were a disappointment," commented senior Darrin Britton. (Copy and Layout by LynDee Lindstrom)

The Centennial "Harriers" had another successful season. The boys team was led by all-state Rob Collins who captured the District Meet making it two years in a row. The boys had a league record of 6-2 and they completed their season by taking 10th place at state. The boys team consisted of Matt Lee, Rob Collins, Marc Turner, Dave Kruse, Terry Kuchabsky, Andy Crick, Rob Hartshorne, and Phil Griffey. Rob Collins set school records this year in the 2.41 mile course and 5000 meter course (11:29, 15:21). Rob was 1st team Mt. Hood league and he was 1st all-state where he finished 2nd overall. The Centennial girls narrowly captured their 4th district title in years. The girls were undefeated in league competition 8-0, and they beat Reynolds in the district meet 45-46. The Centennial girls team consisted of Tammy Blakemore, Michelle Amodeo, Bonnie Marlatt, Angela Benedetti, Andrea Vaughn, Tammy Henderson, and Jenny Mullins. Angela Benedetti and Michelle Amodeo were 1st team in the Mt. Hood League. The girls finished their season by taking 13th at the state meet.

GRACEFUL

Placing third in District was quite an achievement for this years gymnastics team. All the kids helped and encouraged each other, said Mrs. Pratt.

The two going to state were Michelle Swinney and Crystal Hangland. They were also the most outstanding gymnasts. The Carolyn Korbut award went to Karen Johns because she never gave up. Karen also was picked for the most improved gymnast.

The "Sparks" of the team were Bennette Maggaddayo and Karen Johns, because they were such hard workers. The most inspirational gymnast went to Tanya Arnold.

Overall Mrs. Pratt felt the kids did very well and she was very proud of them. For the future of gymnastics at CHS Mrs. Pratt said that next year should be a fun and strong team, and that they should do very well at the District meet.

Kicking off the season, the CHS Varsity soccer started off slowly against Reynolds but jumped into a winning/tieing streak of nine games. This year's team consisted of twelve seniors, three juniors and one sophomore. "By losing six varsity players this year everyone thought we would be an easy team," stated Tom Schneider. The Eagles proved this wrong by making it all the way to the state quarter finals of the playoffs.

One game that Coach Gordon Mouser, who has coached soccer here at Centennial for ten years, highlighted was that against Lakeridge. "It was great because it was the first round of playoffs," commented Mouser. The Varsity boys beat Lakeridge with a score of 3-0. Another moment in the playoffs was the shoot out against Parkrose in the league playoffs. Tom Schneider made two saves out of six to win the game 2-1.

Receiving honors from the Mt. Hood League this year were Kirk Mouser, who received first team all state and first team all league. Terry Smith and Jeff Gallagher were east county's strongest defenders. Second all league awards went to Barry Harris, Carey Guess, and Jeff Gallagher. Another first league award was given to Terry Smith. Honorable mention in second all league went to Tom Schneider. "Overall this year was good. I'm proud to have made it within the top eight in state," quoted Coach Mouser. Copy and Layout by Lyndee Lindstrom.

KICK

The girls soccer team is in the habit of setting high standards, and this season they definitely accomplished this goals. They were one of the few teams to achieve a state playoff berth.

When a team experiences this level of success, naturally there are many highlights to reflect upon. They defeated Gresham in the league playoffs to achieve the privilege of representing the Mt. Hood Conference at the state tournament. After reaching the playoffs, they beat Catlin Gable to reach the quarter finals. Also they were ranked in the top five most of the season.

Coach Mike O'Gara felt that his team's success could be contributed to their overall team play and their positive attitudes.

Many players received various awards, and they are as follows: Julie Dunford-most valuable, 1st team all league, 2nd team all state; Sonya Brandt-most inspirational, 1st team all league, 1st team all state, Oregon's girls soccer player of the year; Jenny Mountain-1st team all league; Shannon Connor-1st team all league; Lisa Toth-2nd team all league; Jody McKinney-honorable mention; Bobbi Rust-most improved. EXPRESS

The varsity volleyball team definitely experienced success this season. When one reflects back on the season, the biggest highlight would have to be the district playoffs where the Eagle Express upset both the Dalles and Gresham. The match against Gresham was the Eagles best performance. After losing twice to the Gophers during the regular season, they came out and dominated throughout the entire match. The result was a 15-5, 15-6 victory and a Mt. Hood Conference state playoff berth where Centennial made its first appearance at the tournament.

The Eagle Express tasted success from the beginning of the season. For the first time, they took the championship at their own pre-season tournament. Then in the first half of the season they crushed David Douglas 15-1, 15-8 which was a turnaround from last year when the Scots stomped on the Eagles. Copy and Layout by Karen Sheldon.

SPLASH!

Determination and hard work definitely paid off for this year's Varsity water polo teams.

The boy's team played tremendously well this season with the outstanding support of team captain Jason Steen. "All the players did an exceptional job," commented Coach Doug Pitassi, "But the seniors seemed to dominate the team." These players included Matt Carlson, who brought out terrific offense; Brad Wardle, who was an excellent goal-keeper; and Rob Harris, who showed outstanding offensive skills.

The girls, who also played a super season, were lead by the superior help of senior Rhonda Parker. Rhonda, who has played for Centennial since 1980, was picked most outstanding offensive and defensive player of the team.

Other players included Susan Streeter, who is one of the team's best offensive players; Linda Frack, who was continuously impressive with her good plays; and Dena Steffen, who has shown great ability and has contributed deeply to the team. Senior Lisa Baldrey has been on the team for three years and has also progressed exceptionally well.

"We had a very exciting season," commented Coach Pitassi, and are looking forward to another rewarding team with great expectations again next year.

CONGRATULATIONS

STRATEGY

This year's Junior Varsity Football team played very well this season with an overall record of 5 wins and 4 losses.

"As the season progressed, the players improved greatly," commented Coach Thoms. Finishing the season with two straight wins, in which the opponents were not able to score, was one of the many highpoints of the players season.

Many awards were given and received by this year's team, such as Most Valuable player awarded to John Thomas; Most Inspirational-Scott Fischer; Most Improved-Randy Bice, and Best Defensive player went to Matt "Stick'em" Stiller.

"The team was made up of a great group of individuals," remarked Coach Norm Thomas, "who will all have success at the Varsity level next year."

DEFENSE!

The 1984 Freshman Football team played another exciting season this year of which they can be deeply proud. With the outstanding support of coaches, Bob Akers and Dan Pokorny, the team pulled through with an overall record of 3 wins and 5 losses.

"The team improved a great deal throughout the season," commented Coach Akers, "The games that we didn't win were lost by making careless mistakes."

Many games highlighted the season, but none such as the last game of the season when they defeated Sandy High School in overtime. "All around it was the best game played this season," stated Akers.

There were many outstanding players mentioned this year, such as kicker Mike Momper, Quarterbacks Bryan Walls and Todd Montgomery, and Offensive Linemen Brad Bergler and Scott Giordano. Defensive captain was Jim Merrill and outstanding punter was Scott Winters.

A great number of players were considered to be excellent for the J.V. team next year. These players include Chris Carbonari, Chris Coate, Todd Kendell, Steve Fritz, and Bill Wing.

"We really had a terrific season," commented Coach Akers, "And it was really exciting to see how hard the players worked to become the team that they were."

The J.V. Boys soccer team performed very well this season. Mr. Fenske stated, "The defense was extremely tough, allowing only six goals in fourteen games." The team didn't have any goals scored on them in league play and their last ten games were shut-outs.

The offense was also very productive by scoring 67 goals in fourteen games. Todd Gatten and Lucian Ciobanasiu led the way in scoring both with 15 goals.

These J.V. players will be very competitive at the varsity level. They have a lot to look forward to next year.

Kelli Wallen, Trish Wilson, and Michelle Pierce all had fine seasons. Bobbi Rust was also an extreme asset to the team until she was promoted to varsity.

The team awards went as follows: Most Inspirational-Kim Olsen, Most Improved- Tammy Francis and Julie Day, and Most Valuable - Kelli Wallen.

2) Darlene Edwards, Wendy Fields, and Cathy McNamara stop for a conference during the game. 3) Karen Abel is ready to tear the other team to bits. 4) Cathy McNamara is in position to receive the ball.

KILL

The J.V. volleyball team had a successful season and finished with a 12-4 record. Their most memorable matches were against David Douglas and Sandy even though at times the win went to the other team. The team definitely made their best showing at the David Douglas match despite the fact that the final scores left the Scots on top.

The strongest part of their game was probably hitting; however, this was made possible by the improvement made in their passing and setting.

Also the team was very supportive of each other and the varsity team as well. This naturally contributed to their success. The team awards went as follows: Most Valuable - Rhonda Bliss and Marci Dorin, Most Inspirational - Julie Lehman, and Most Improved - Kelly Dieble. Copy and Layout by Karen Sheldon.

ACE

The freshman volleyball team kept the trend going and also had a winning season. Their record, including nonleague games, was 13-6.

Without a doubt, their best match was the second time that they faced Gresham. They controlled the Gophers with their outstanding serving and team play.

They ran a 6-2, which is a more complicated offense than most freshman teams use. They were very competitive and most of their losses were close matches. Also this year's frosh team was able to play four second matches which allowed for more playing time since there were so many on the team. It should be noted that they won all four of these matches.

When coach Lori Fischer was asked about her team, she stated, "They were co-operative, worked hard, and listened very well. I really enjoyed the season."

This year's freshman awards went as follows: most valuable-Laura Canfield; most inspirational-Amy Schabell; and most improved-Kari Dooley. Copy and Layout by Karen Sheldon

JAMM

The girl's varsity basketball team achieved higher goals than anyone, including themselves, thought possible. Reaching the State Playoffs was the end result of many season highlights.

The greatest game of the season was definitely their last league game against Reynolds. They defeated the Lancers 49-45. This knocked Reynolds out of first place and made Sandy league champions.

The Eagles went on to make their well deserved State Playoff appearance. They met Grant and lost. The Girls experienced a great and exciting season.

SKY

Jumping the season off well, the Centennial Eagle Varsity Boys slammed the Gresham Gophers in the first league game of the season with a score of 51-38. After that, the Eagle boys really had to work uphill. The next win came against D. Douglas with a acore of 57-41. "This is the first year of twenty-five in the history of C.H.S. that we have ever defeated Douglas both times in a season," stated Coach Moss. The other Douglas game was won with a score of 50-41. With all their hard work, The Eagle boys took the team to the first round of state playoffs. Central Catholic was the team that fell the Eagles in the first game with an unfortunate loss of 66-55.

"This year's team was, in every sense of the word, a team," Coach Moss commented. "I felt happy as a coach to say that we had 12 contributing players. We could have given up after our poor start, but instead the guys pulled together and brought us back to a winning season." The award winners this year were as follows Most Valuable: Scott Montogmery; Most Inspirational: Jacob Menashe; Best Defense: Lonnie Bates and Most Improved: Jim Kambeitz. Copy by LynDee Lindstrom

This year's girls Freshman team, coached by Dan Pokorny, had an even record of 10-10. Awards went to Carrie Couturier for Most Outstanding Offensive Player and Rebounder. Best Defensive Player went to Kim Sheets and Deana Jensen. Playmaker award went to Amy Schabell. Julie Marquardt received the Best Attitude and Effort award and Most Improved was Wendy Kosmecki. Competitive was the key word for the season, and it showed through the girls continuing improvement in the progressing season.

BLOCK

Both Freshman boys teams started out on an uphill struggle this year- but ended their seasons on positive notes.

The frosh 'A' team, whose record was 5-14, was coached by Stu Clem. One high point of the season was the last game against Parkrose, as the boys pulled off their first victory on the road. MVP for the 'A' boys were Dave Manley and Tim Burke. Best Defensive player went to Tim Burke and Funnest to Have Around went to Todd Montgomery.

Finishing the season off, the boys frosh 'B' team won their last six out of eight games, ending with a record of 10-9. The best overall game was against Barlow where the boys won by 20 pts. Leading scorers were Bob Peterson at 16 pts/game and Marty Bartholomew with 15.5 pts/game.

"Overall the Varsity and JV will benefit next year from these players in improvement and attitude toward each other in basketball," stated Coach Clem.

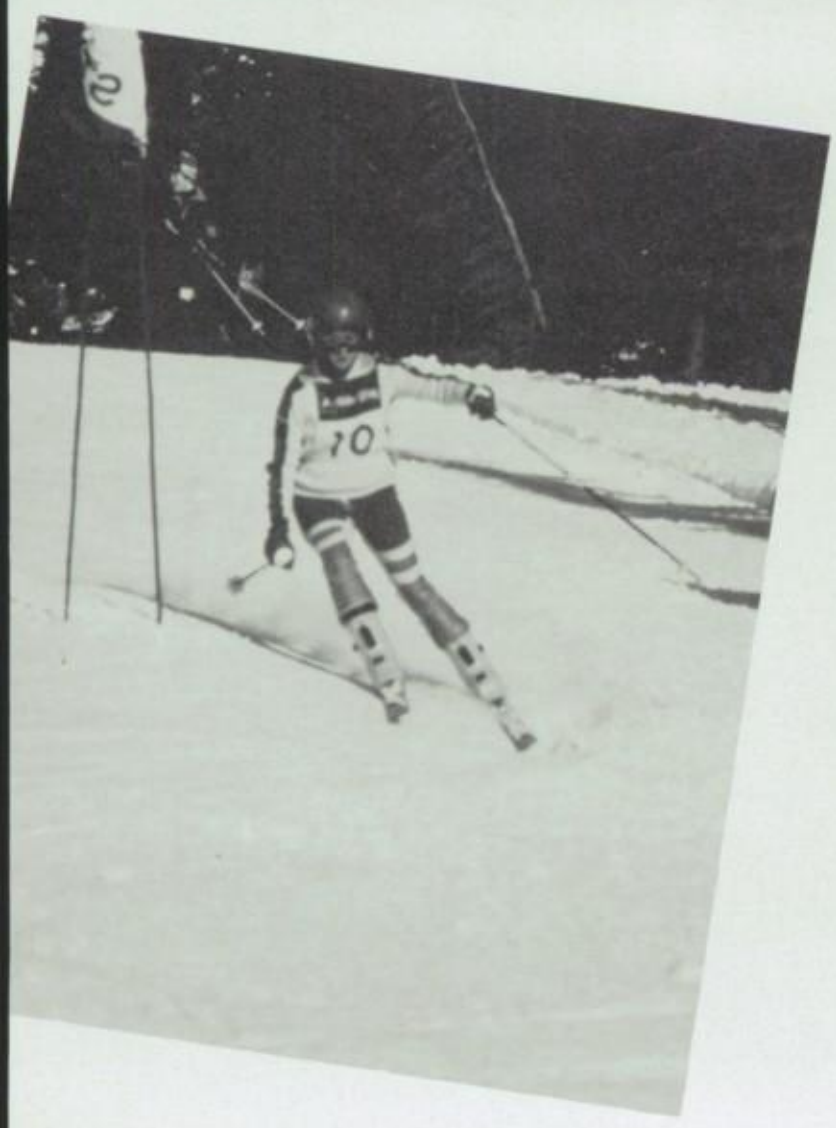
This year's Centennial Ski Team was very successful. They competed and did well in eight slalom courses and individual accomplishments were just as high. The awesome Ski Team members consisted of the following: Freshmen, Eric Asa, Shauna Stevenson, Jason Waagmeester, Jerry Fitzpatrick, Chris DeVaney, and Amy Seabrooke. Sophomores, Cynthia Pelfry, John Stuart, Dale Cossette, Jacques Poirier, Mike Vantzelfden, Jenny Ward, Tamera Armstrong, Andrew Powell and Forrest Desper. Juniors, Chris Pelfrey, Mark Higgins, Bruce Byer, James Waterman, John McGregor, Dan Doyen, Mike Wentworth, Alex Olmsted, and Bob DeVaney. Seniors, Todd Boire, Mike Hultquist and Earl Wilson. This year's Ski Team coach was John Creel.

1. Junior James Waterman swooshes down the mountain with ease. 2. Andrew Powell, Centennial's sophomore foreign exchange student from Australia, seems pleased with his start out of the gate. 4. In this shot James Waterman gracefully? finishes up his run.

2. This ski-racer does it like a pro. 3. Sailing over the powder is sophomore Mike Vantzelfden. This is Mike's 2nd year on the Centennial Ski Team. 6. Even as a rookie, Shauna Stevenson takes complete control of the slalom course. 7. More so than defying gravity, skiing is a sport of conquering the art of balance.



PIN!

The Varsity Wrestling team played an excellent season again this year with an overall record of 14 wins and 5 losses.

"Our team improved greatly throughout the season," commented Coach Tom Dyar", and we gained a tremendous amount of experience."

"We had many outstanding players" remarked Dyar, "who helped us to place 3rd in district." These players include, (Junior) Cam Strahm, (Senior) Mark Helton, (Sophomore) Ron Montehermoso, and (Junior) Bill Stafford.

"Although losing seven seniors from last year, the team still accomplished their goal of placing third in district and league," commented Dyar.

Many matches were played this season, but of these Gresham, Barlow, and Rainier, (which was ranked first in state,) still remained the toughest.

Earning their way to state this year were players: Ron Montehermoso, Bill Stafford, Dave Hilliard, Rich Morris, John Tumbaga, Mark Helton, Curt Strahm, and Cam Strahm.

The J.V. Wrestling team, coached by Mr. Steve Baker, played an outstanding season with an overall team record of 10 wins and 11 losses.

"We were short some wrestlers in the upper weights which put us at a disadvantage in the match scoring," commented Coach Baker, "But we had some outstanding individuals and we were always competitive at 148 pounds and under."

Barlow, Gresham, and David Douglas were among some of the toughest teams; yet they still accomplished their major goal of performing to the best of their abilities.

"There were many outstanding players," commented Coach Baker. These players included: Dustin Gray, Chris Coate, Dave Hilliard, Mark Amodeo, Doug Keller, and Steve Hall.

"We had a strong freshman team this year," commented Baker, and J.V. looks rewarding for us next year.

One word to describe the Freshman wrestling season would have to be "Excellent," commented Coach Mark Porterfield. The team was undefeated in the Mt. Hood Conference and averaged 68 points compared to the opponents 19 points.

"Our goals were easily met," commented Porterfield, "which were to be undefeated and have fun throughout the wrestling season."

Some of the outstanding players included: Haina Searls, Andre Elswick, and Bob Woods. Haina Searls was the leading scorer for the team with a total of 105 points.

"If the turnout for freshman wrestling is good next year, the 1985-86 season should place the Eagle wrestlers in contention for the league title next year" commented Coach Porterfield.

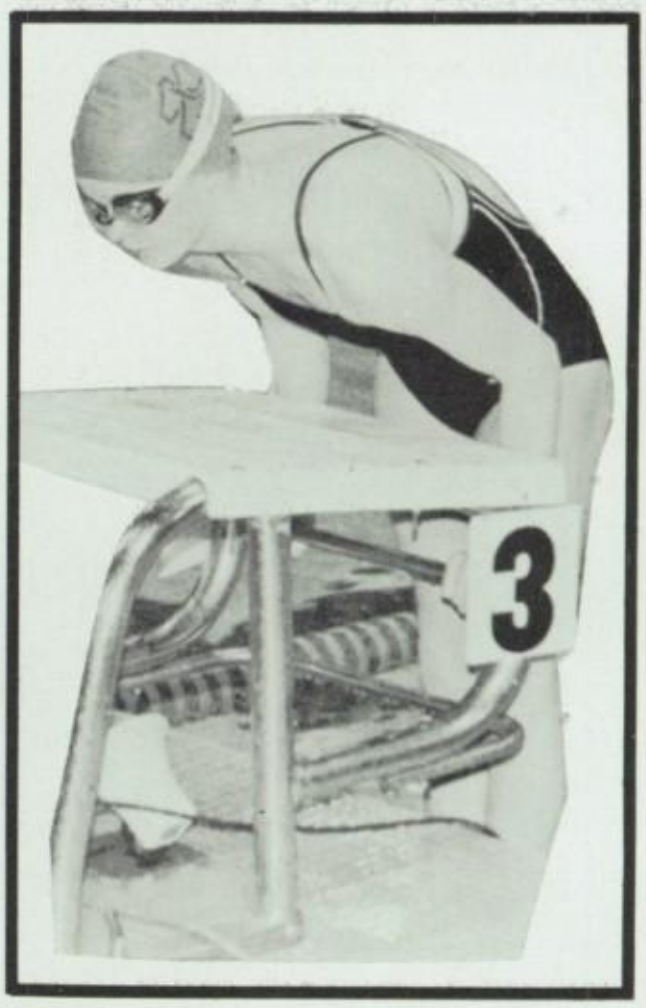
Our 1985 swim team definitely performed well this winter. The boys only lost one dual meet and that was to David Douglas. Their most memorable dual meet was against Sandy. It was predicted to be a close competition but the Eagles defeated the Pioneers by 23 points. The girls also experienced a successful season. For the first time they accomplished a win over David Douglas.

Through the season there were also several school records broken. Terri Long set four new records: 200m freestyle, 100m freestyle, 100m breaststroke, and the 200m individual medley. Plus Rhonda Parker set a new time in the 100m backstroke and Jason Steen added his name to the record board in the 200m freestyle.



This was a very successful year for our winter sports. Altogether CHS had 5 sports represented at the state playoffs.

Our boys and girls swim teams were fortunate enough to send 11 people to the state competition. Teri Long, Rhonda Parker, Angie Barber, Jason Steen, Justin Steen, Bob Carstensen, Brian Frack, and Brett Allen composed this elite group.

The girls and boys basketball teams both placed in the top four during league play which allowed them to compete in the first round at the state tournament. This was a great accomplishment for both teams, but especially for the girls since they broke their losing tradition.

The wrestling team, as always, sent several matmen to state. The Eagle representatives at state were as follows: Ron Montehermoso, Bill Stafford, Rich Morris, John Tumbaga, Cam Strahm, Kurt Strahm, Mark Helton, and Dave Hillard.

Each one of these individuals and teams that succeeded in reaching the state playoffs deserves a pat on the back. They worked hard all season striving to be the best, and reaching the playoffs is symbolic of how much effort each person put forth.

STRIKE

At the beginning of the season, the varsity baseball team set the goal to reach the state playoffs but they missed their goal by one game. They experienced a roller coaster season since they gathered both wins and losses in clumps.

The season's two most memorable games were both against Sandy. The first time the Eagles won 17-9. This was the first time their hitting really caught fire. Perry Francis, Chris Smith, and Scott Peters all had homeruns. The second time they faced Sandy they made a fantastic comeback. After trailing 4-1 in the bottom of the seventh inning, the Eagles finished the game by winning 5-4. This team had a great season despite the fact they didn't reach the playoffs. Layout and copy by Karen Sheldon. Photography by Dave Evans, Mark Helton and Tom Schneider.

Boys Frosh. baseball this year had a successful season ending with 12-2. One of the highlights of the season was Mike Momper's triple play against Reynolds' and Scott Winters home run hit over the Gophers fence. When asked which game the guys enjoyed most, they decided on the Gresham game. "Gresham had beat us the first time so our win the second time, 7-5, was great," said David Hickey. Mike Momper commented, "I liked The Dalles game best because we got out of school early and beat them 11-3." Marty Bartholomew was one of the strongest batters and Dave Manley was one of the best pitchers.

When Todd Maontgomery was asked about his coach, Mr. Cook, he said, "He disciplined us a lot, but in the end, it always helped us win."

Fourteen players consisted of this year's Junior Varsity team. The boys ended up taking fourth place in the league. Leading pitchers this season were: Doug Manley, Eric Wadsworth, Jacques Poirier and Mark Schultz, Curt Strahm, Jacques Poirier and Mark Bodenroeder.

One memorable game was that against Reynolds. Centennial came from behind 6-2 to win 9-6 in the bottom of the sixth inning. Another great game was against The Dalles, where the guys came from behind again, 7-3, to win 12-7. Highlights of the game were two home runs hit by Jacques Poirier and Curt Straum. Eric Wadsworth hit a single also to bring two runs in with two outs already. Copy and Layout by LynDee Lindstrom Photography by Darren Britt-Britton

PITCH

The Varsity softball team had high expectations which weren't quite realized. This team possessed tremendous talent and ability, but they simply took too long to start playing their game.

The greatest highlight of the season would have to be their first game against Gresham. They won this game by handing the Gophers their first loss. Then, after losing a heart breaker to The Dalles the first time, the team sought revenge. The second time around the Eagles dominated the entire game and ended it in five innings with a score of 16-0. The Eagles may have wished for a better season, but they still had many accomplishments which should be admired. Copy and Layout by Martha Walker Photos by Mark Helton and Greg Johnson

The varsity players, in order of rank, are as follows: Kirk Schwerzler, Terry Blake, Jeff Maier, David Keller, Eric Schabell, and Tony Schaecher. The J.V. team consists of: Andy Jones, Mark Amodeo, Jason Iverson, Matt Klink, Doug Emmons, and Jon Marhun.

The highlights of the season include the team's score of 149, which is one over par, on the backeast portion of Glendoveer. Also all of the returning lettermen improved their scores over last year. LOVE

The boys tennis team didn't quite achieve the record they'd hoped for at the beginning of the season. They experienced several close matches which could have gone either way, but always seemed to end in their opponent's favor. One such competition was the second time they faced Columbia. According to Coach Tolonen, "It was a real thriller."

An extremely important fact to remember is that 4 of the 6 competitors won their first round at district. This clearly proves that the ability existed; however, things just didn't fall their way. The team awards went as follows: Most Improved - Evan Sass, Most Inspirational - Jacob Menashe and John Dunbar, and Most Valuable - Thomas Birkholm.

1) Left to Right: Kirk Goodwin, Chad Jones, Kyle Marsh, Mitch Lee, Jason Shommer, Jacob Menashe, Skip Hildreth, Steve Kim, Thomas Birkholm, John Dunbar, Dan Adams, and Jay Keel Not pictured: Rod Potts, Brian Bergler, and Evan Sass

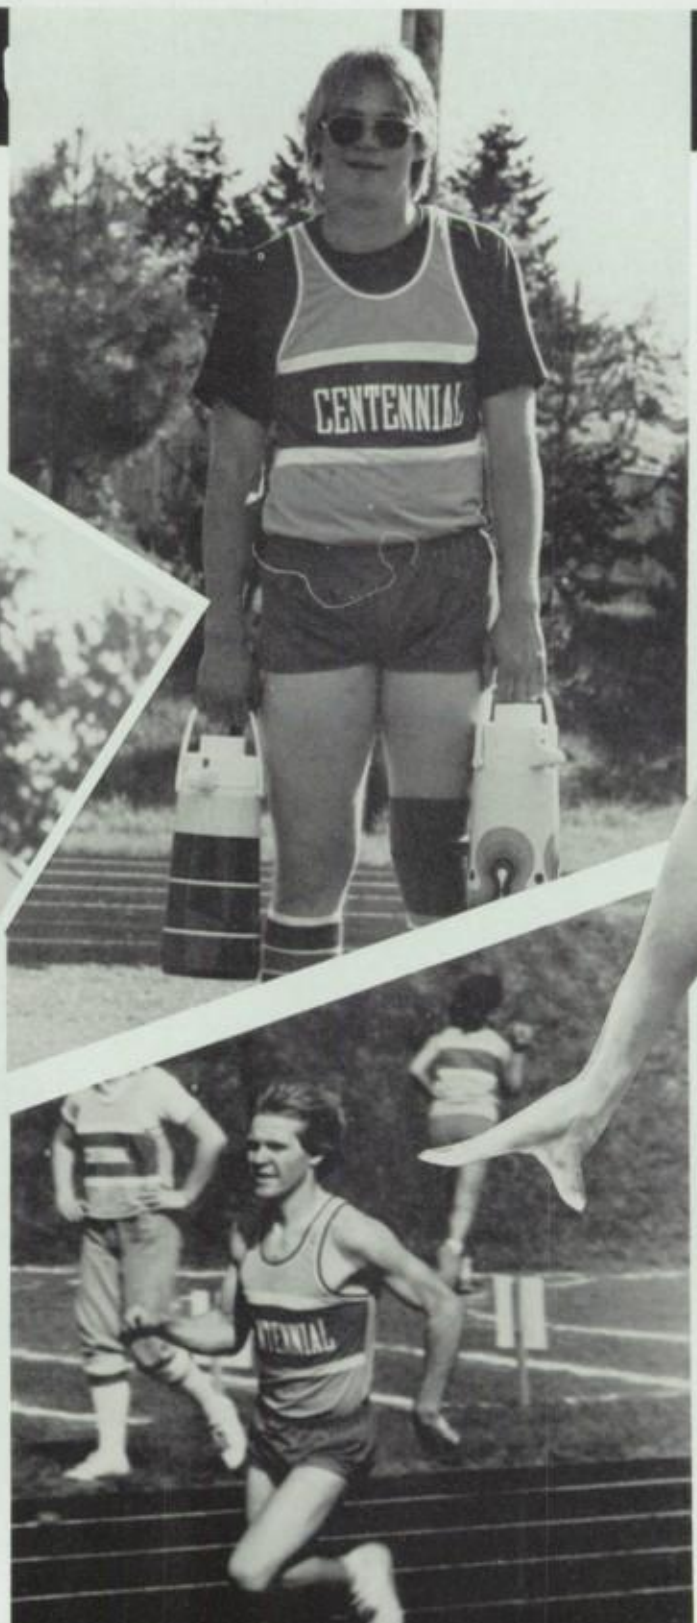
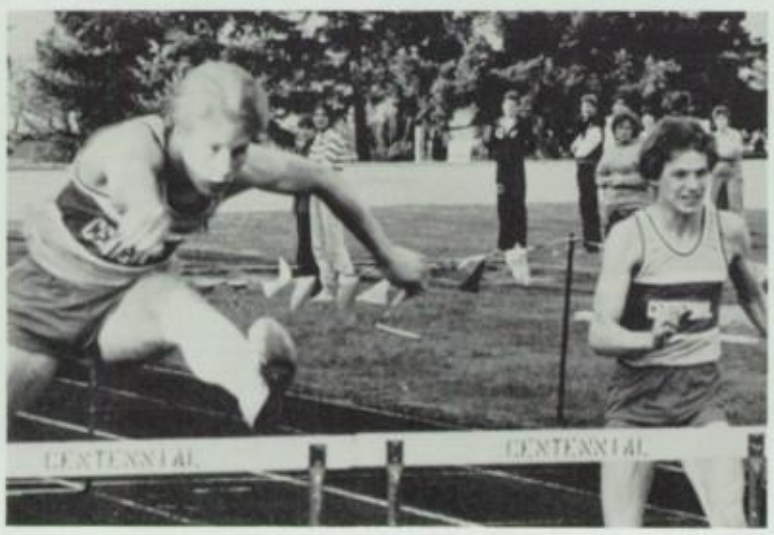
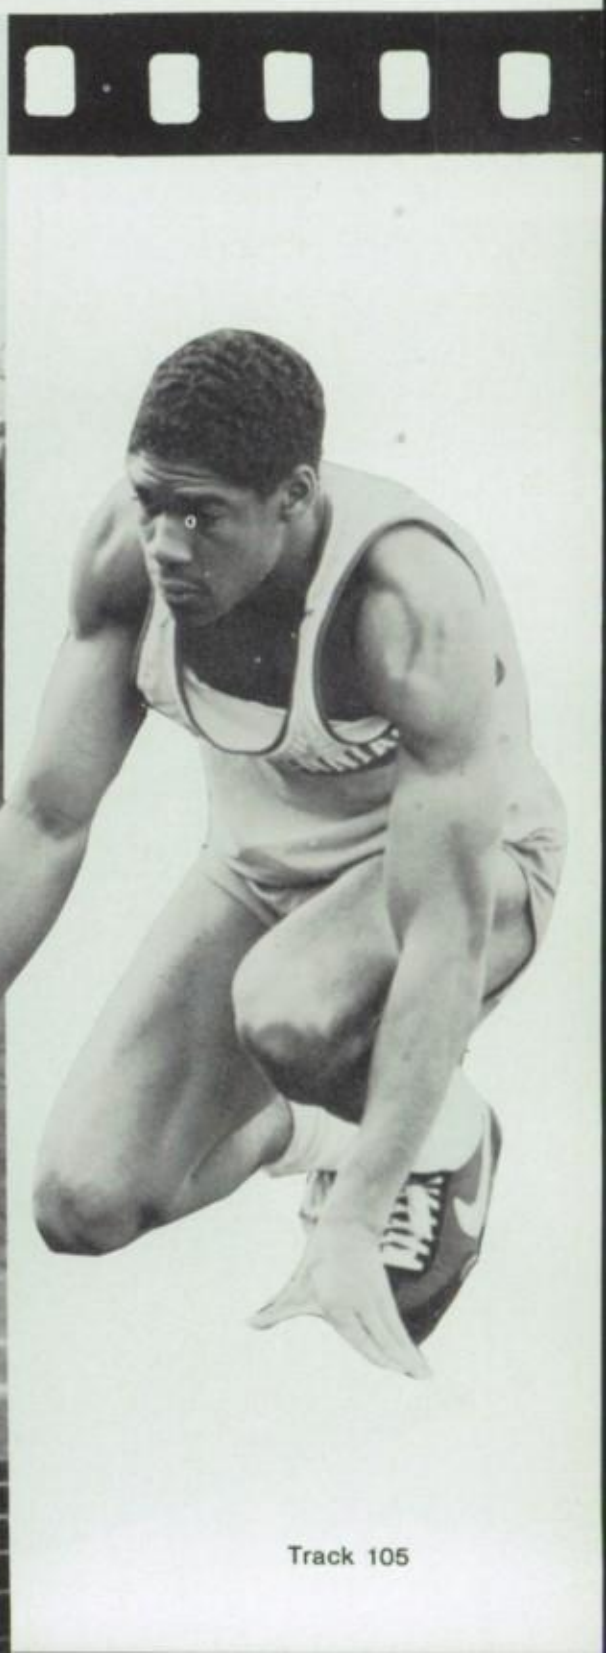
This year's boys Varsity athletes are some of the finest that have come through Centennial. In four years, the guys have only lost 1 meet against Gresham in 1983. Competitive is the on key word that expresses this season. "When the boys have to compete under stress, they really pull through," stated Head Coach Letts. Steve Hash and Darren Britton were really emotional leaders, getting everyone pumped up before meets; they also contributed in their events, Steve with his jumping and Darren with his vaulting. Throwers helped make the season successful too. "After losing Brent Qualls, the Varsity throwers had to pull up the slack," commented Coach Thoms, "Chris Maes and Ralph Kneller improved in discus; while Kyle Popma, Tom Leuthauser and Bruce Byer gave outstanding performances toward the end of the season in shot." The seniors on the team are: Tony Burton, Chip Norton, Troy Smith, Barry Harris, Heath Burmeister, Lonnie Bates, Rob Collins, Matt Lee, Steve Hash, Tracy Roberts, Darren Britton, Kyle Popma, Tom Leuthauser, and Ralph Kneller.







SPRINT

The girls varsity track team achieved great success during the regular season. None of the other teams were able to defeat our Eagles.

Coach Crane felt that Sandy would pose the greatest threat; however, since it was early in the season the Pioneers were off guard and fell to the wrath of the Eagles.

Gresham also had a tough team but the Eagles out-scored them 70-57.

The main reason for the girls' success was their great depth. Most of the time they would score at least two places in each event.

Once the Eagles reached State they did experience defeat. Coach Crane expressed the fact that "a lot of young kids gained valuable experience."

Leading the pack, Angela Benedetti finishes her first lap.

With a deep look of concentration, Senior Tammy Blakemore makes her way around the track.

All the timers anxiously await the arrival of the winner.

Sophomore Angela Benedetti runs so quickly that her feet don't even touch the ground.

A Centennial track member Lisa Toth sprints to the finish line to take first place.

Jeni Mullins and April Bigelow watch the District Track meet.

PROMISING

1) Showing determination, Robert Asa sprints to the finish line. 2) Battling out the finish are freshman teammates, Bob Woods and Todd Berry. 3) Putting his all into it, Todd Berry puts out the last bit of effort in the 110 hurdles. 4) The sky's the limit, shows freshman Brian Walls in pole vault.

Centennial Junior Varsity track had a very inconsistent amount of competitors this season; because of varying talent everyone took their turn on Varsity. The J.V. are the 'backbone of the Varsity team'. "This season the J.V. men added a lot of depth to the whole team," stated Coach Letts, "they only lost 1 meet the whole season." Grant Cowlthorp showed some versatility being in the 400 sprint, 3000 distance, and high jump.

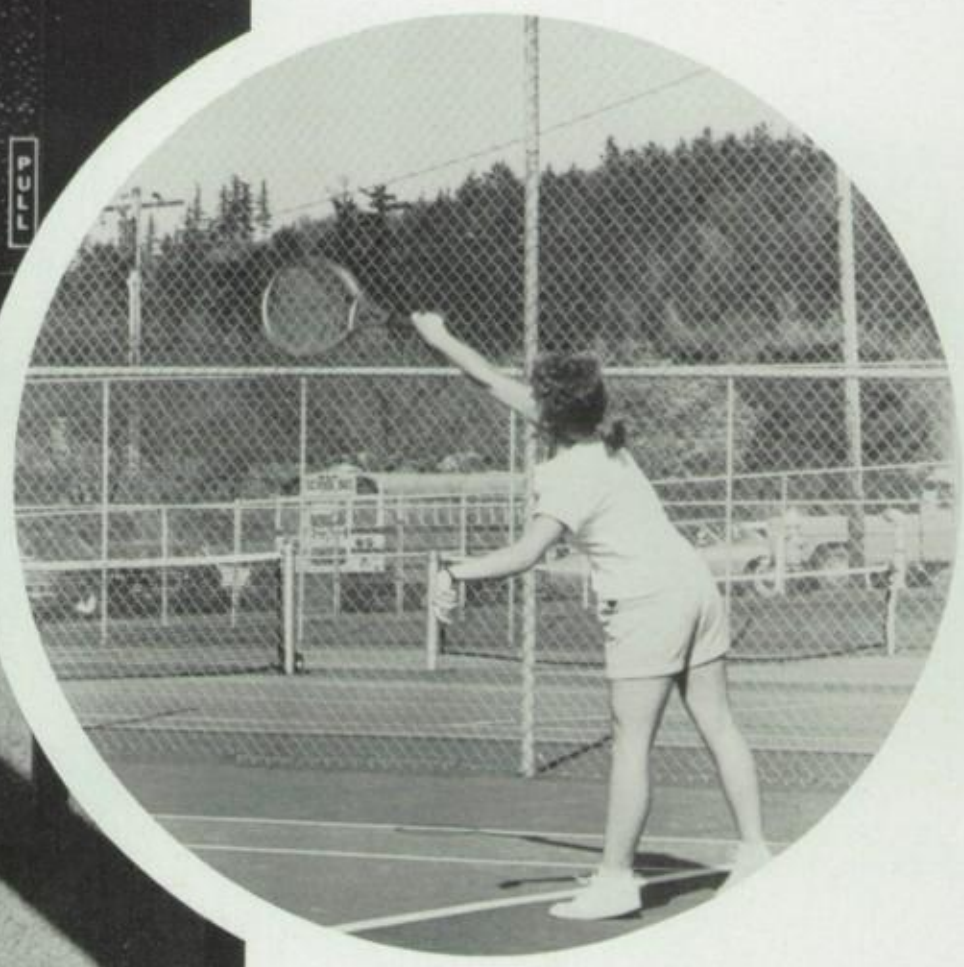
Part and full time members on the J.V. team consisted of: James Waterman, Jim Crain, Marco Leslie, Brad Bergler, Bryan Walls, Todd Dauer, Jeff Deubert, Dave Norton, Scott Wenke, Rob Hartshorne, Ron Boyce, Mike Brehm, Andy Crick, Scott Noren, Mike Cherry, Grant Cowlthorp, Andrew Toth, Ron Baird, Elden Deel, and Dan Macca.

1) Vaulting over the bar, Brian Bradshaw proves worthy of being a freshman on the Varsity level. 2) Long distance runner, Phil Griffy, shows the endurance that Coach Letts has built into him. 3) Glancing at the camera, exchange student, Scott Wenke, keeps up the pace. 4) In the final turn of the race Dan Macca and Phil Griffy sprint to the finish. 5) Rob Collins and Tina Cross, allias 'hurdle crew', look enthusiastic about their jobs.

This year's Freshman boys track was strong in every event. "They are a parallel to the seniors now, but they're only freshmen," said Coach Letts. Three outstanding frosh. athletes are Rob Asa, Brad Bergler, and Brian Bradshaw. Rob has competed on all levels and has been in javelin, relay, and sprints. Brad Bergler ties up the J.V. sprints with the 200, 400, and relay; Brian Bradshaw competes in the pole vault, varsity, and javelin, J.V.

The freshman boys consisted of: Bryan Walls, Brad Bergler, Tim Burke, Eric Asa, Robert Asa, Ted Pack, Dave Norton, Todd Dauer, Jeff Deubert, Phil Griffy, Chris Carbonari, Ron Baird, and Brian Bradshaw.

1) The three tennis stars: Curly, Moe, and Larry, better known as Michele McDonald, Julie Mark, and Bev Heskiss.



2) While out on the courts, Bev Heskiss shows off her new birthday watch.

CONGRATU

3) Angela Benedetti and Tammy Blakemore get ready to give it their final kick.

5) Kyle Popma and Darren Britton meditate before the big meet.

6) Lisa Toth accepts her first place award at the disgust of her Gresham competitors.

LATIONS

4) Scott Noren defies gravity for a brief moment.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF . . .

BZZZZ! . . . Z morning zoo on Z100. This is the news goddess, Lorna D. saying rise and shine! It's a beautiful day out therein the Rose City and ... "Oh geez! I can't believe it's Monday already. Maybe I'll skip today. No, one more and it's a definite suspension."

"Attention please! There is a blue Toyota pick-up, License plate number Z4138J with its lights on!" "7:50. Better get to Biology class . . . A test today?! But Mr. Larson, I was absent Friday and . . . oh, okay I'll take the @#!$%&* test!"

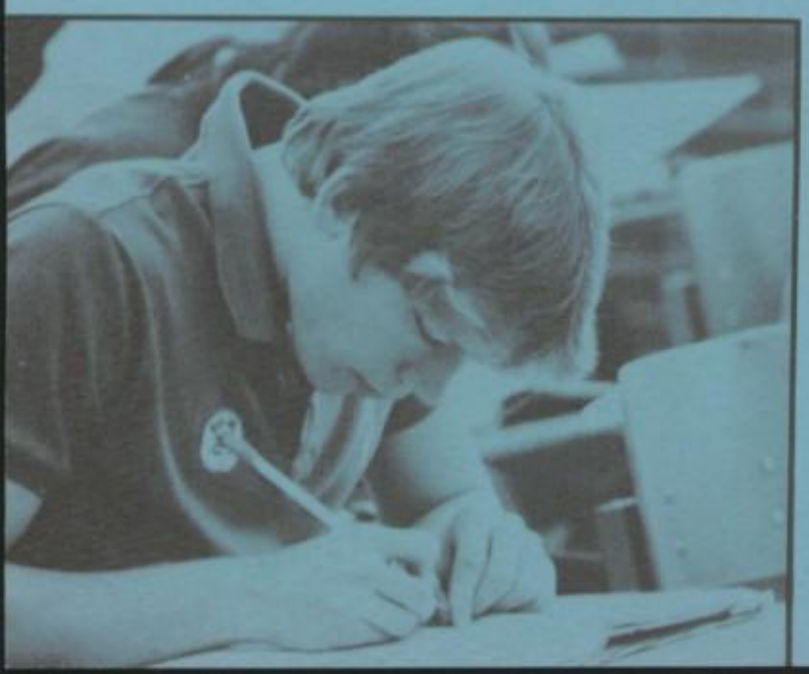
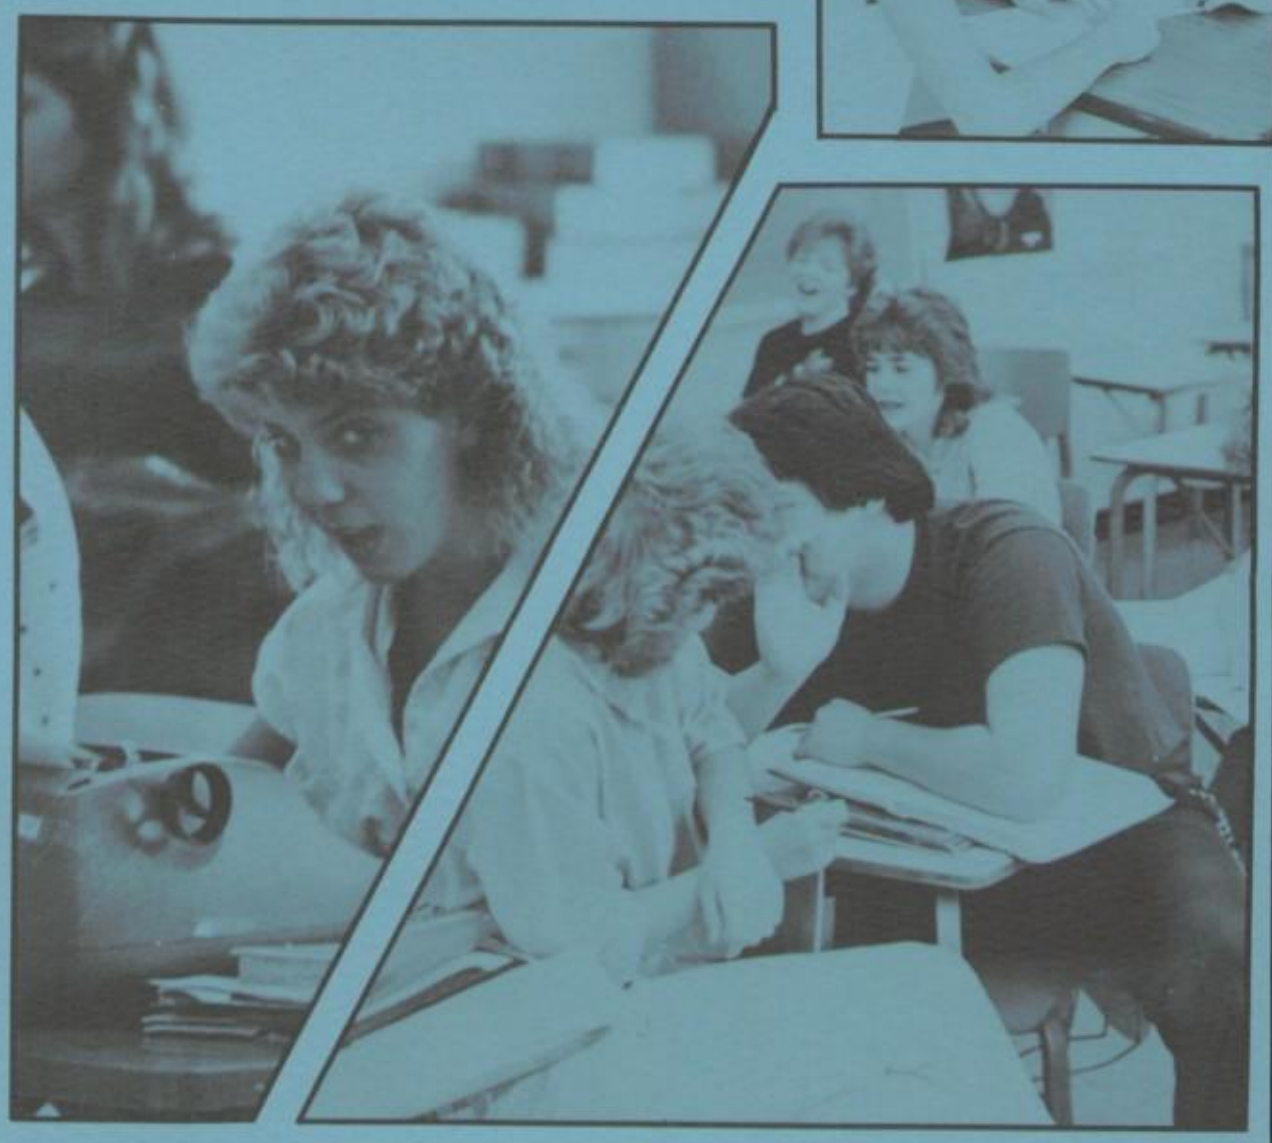
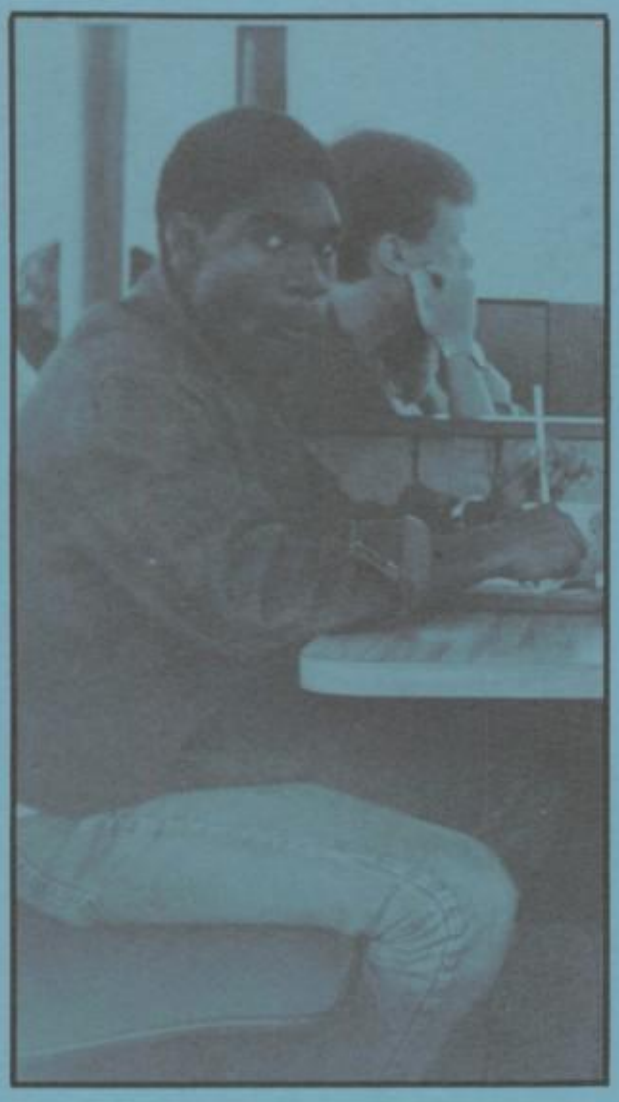
"Boy, am I glad that's over! I hope the rest of the day goes better. "Okay guys, we're going to run three miles around the track! There will be no walking and you are being timed!"

"Wonderful! I'm going to die of exhaustion before the day is over!"
"Well, at least I made it to 3rd period. Hey, Roger, did we have an assignment yesterday? We have a test today?! First Biology, and now Consumer Economics! I can't believe that I've had two tests today that I didn't even know about! I think I'm leaving after this class. Psst! Roger! Do you want to go out for an early lunch? We'll leave after this class and pick up something, and then go to my house."







"That is the last time I go to Miller's Fried Chicken! That lunch was sick!" "Where were you last period?" "Oh, well, um, I had a doctor's appointment Mrs. Grover."

"Didn't you use that excuse the last time you were absent from class? "I think you'd better show up tomorrow. We are having a test!"

"Hey McDonald! How's it going? We have a test today?! This is the third one today! I don't know if I can take it anymore. Thank God for early dismissal!

"Attention please! Students who normally ride bus 23, ride bus 41 today!" "Maybe I should have skipped after all!"

From outlandish clothing to the mos popular foods, a wave of fads an fashions hit CHS during the 1984-8 school year. Clothes were definitely tool for making a statement this yea New wave was the most rapid move in the fashion arena with others fo lowing. Long skirts, long johns unde jeans, trench coats, and funky acces sories could be found in the closets o many wavers. Rock fashions re mained the same as last year with few added components to add var ety. Parachute pants were a big hit a well as studded bracelets and belts Breakers also entered the fashio scene, sporting sweats, high tops an a mop of gelled curls, Levis, cowbo boots, tennis shoes, of all kinds, an letterman jackets could also be foun floating around in the halls of CHS For juniors and seniors, cars were big thing. They came in all makes an models, and they represented th freedom to go out to lunch, go o donut runs, or on some occasion they provided a means for skipping school. Another big craze at CHS was balloon and flower sending. Birthdays and holidays were marked with hoardes of flowers and balloons drifting about the halls. Singing telegrams were another popular fad. Many students were surprised by French maids or young men in tuxedos carrying balloons and birthday greetings as well as lessons in horn blowing and dancing. Although food could not be considered a fad, some types of food such as chips and soda pop were very popular amongst the students and faculty of CHS. Donuts were an exceptionally big hit this year. Fads and fashions change every year for the better or for the worse. One thing is certain though, they add color and variety to any school.

1. Here we have the basic diet of a high school student. 2. Richie spins on his face as an exciting example of breaking. 3. Guess who this is modeling the latest in body by Guess! 4. Junior John MacGregor tries to look imposing yet innocent. 9. Junior Chris Adler models the latest in wave hairstyles. 10. Somebody got new shoes! 11. Seniors Terry Smith and Marc Turner act out roles in the Christmas week skits.

1985 was a year for new and unique songs and movies. From the beginning to the end of the school year, the trends revolved around everything, including pop rock and new wave on the radio to comedy and tragedy in the theatres. Some of the most remembered music artists include the following: Madonna, Prince, REO Speedwagon, Michael Jackson, Huey Lewis and the News, Cyndi Lauper and Chicago. As for the block buster hits in the movie houses "Beverly Hills Cop," was one of the best along with "Gremlins," "Terminator," "Risky Business" and "GhostBusters."

And on top of all of these trends was "The fastest growing radio station in the world", "The only radio station beamed around the world by satelite" KKRZ, more commonly known as "Z100." The year was topped off with having two of probably the most famous concerts in concert history. First was the "Michael Jackson Victory Tour," and then the ever notiable "Prince Revolution Tour."

1984-85 News Makers

1984, the year of "Big Brother," was filled with many controversial and memorable events. One of the most controversial incidents was that of Vanessa Willians' surrender of her title as Miss America due to the exposure of sexually explicit photos she had posed for. Democratic presidential candidate Walter Mondale made history when he chose a woman, Geraldinne Ferraro, as his vice-presidential running-mate. U.S. involvement in Beirut also proved to be controversial. In 1984 when the Marines left, more than 260 Marines were dead and Lebanon was still at war. In the U.S. and around the world, such events as the restoration of the Statue of Liberty, and the birth of Prince Harry by Princess Diana were considered memorable. The Winter Olympics in Yugoslavia saw the U.S. win four gold and four silver medals. Scott Hamilton won a gold in the men's figure skating and Steve Mahre won a gold medal in the Giant Slalom skiing event. The U.S. also did very well in the Summer Olympics, winning 83 gold medals, 61 silver, and 30 bronze. Carl Lewis won four gold medals and Mary Lou Retton won the all-round gold medal and led the gymnastic team to a silver medal. In football that year, Walter Payton of the Chicago Bears broke Jim Brown's rushing record which was previously 12,312. In the federal arena, President Reagan won re-election with the biggest electoral vote in the or nations history. He won 49 states as with 49 percent of the total vote. Michael Jackson was also a big hit that year stunning the world with his successful comeback and his so-called Victory Tour. There are several other events that helped to shape the world that year, too many to be mentioned at one time. But, all in all it was a great year filled with many surprises.

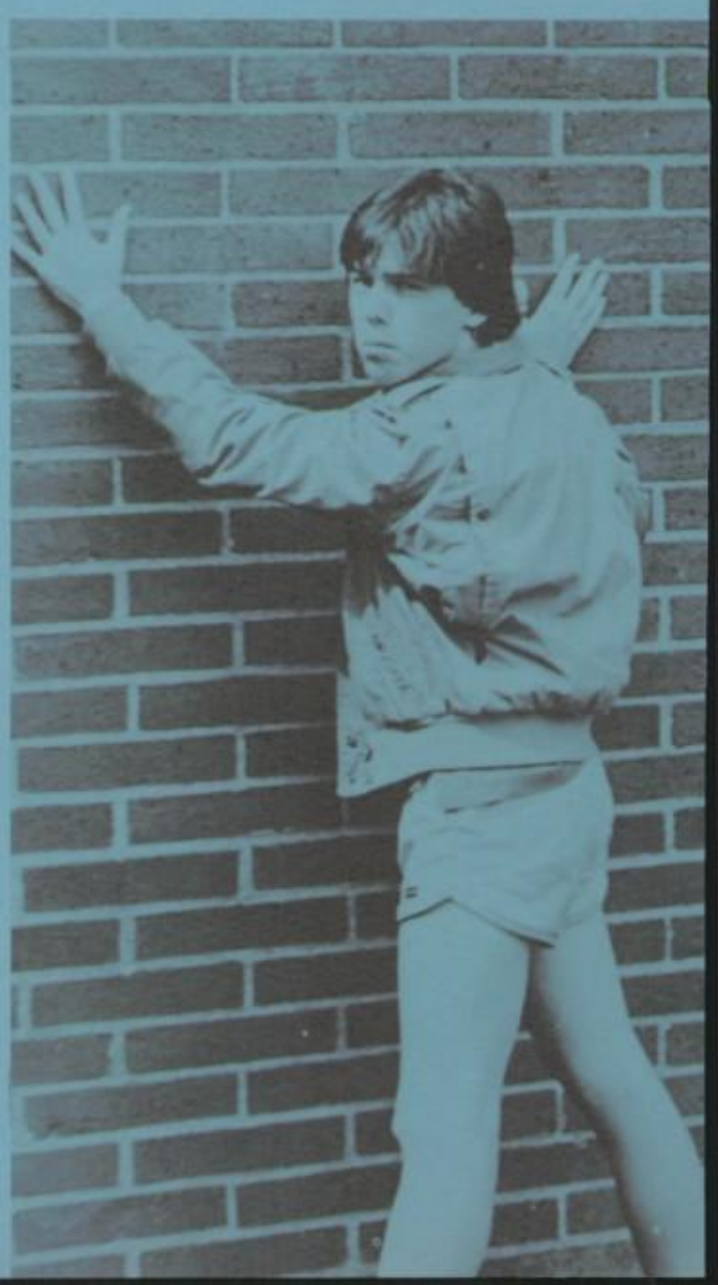
King Turkey:

Munsey Claims Title

Thanksgiving once again heralded the famous CHS tradition of picking the strangest, most out-going personality in our school. What might that be called you ask? It's the King Turkey competition of course! When it comes to equal rights, CHS takes an active stance. It shows every November when the male population of CHS is analyzed, poked at, and picked at to find the four strangest guys in the school. The 1984 King Turkey Court consisted of the illustrious senior Carl Munsey, the K-Mart King junior John Stuthard, the sophomore class' one and only Jeff Berg, and freshman Grant Turner, the newest comedy act to hit CHS. Each of these candidates did every thing they could to build up their reputations as wild and crazy guys. Senior Carl Munsey, however, swept the students and faculty of CHS away with his goofy antics and bizarre fashions. He definitely stole the show November 21, when he entered the main gym on a toilet.



Groups

1985 staff captures memories.

This year's yearbook staff consisted of 12 dedicated, hard-working members, of which, only two were returning members from last year's staff.

Many new skills and tasks were learned by these students, such as writing copy, drawing layouts and, most of all, cropping pictures.

All the members had their own special touch and showed their unique creativity every day through putting together the 1985 memories of Centennial High School.

This year's staff members included Heidi Feist, Linda Henkes, LynDee Lindstrom, Wendy Martel, Regina McDaniel, Jenny Persell, Stephenie Zuimby, Karen Sheldon, Suzy Simonis, Tammie Trafton, and Tiffany Wolf.

Together, with advisor, Beverley Heimes we worked together as a team and once again produced the quality 1984-85 Centhiscan.

Vol. 26, No. 6

The Talon, the Centennial High School newspaper, is produced and distributed by the ten writers and seven photographers enrolled in the Advanced Journalism class.

Seniors Stephenie Quimby and Jenny Persell served as co-editors for the entire year. Together, along with advisor Mrs. Bev Heimes, they corrected each story and were there to answer any questions that arose.

Although the class was small, it was filled with people who possessed an abundance of writing and photographic talents. These skills have led to much acclaim from the school and also from the community.

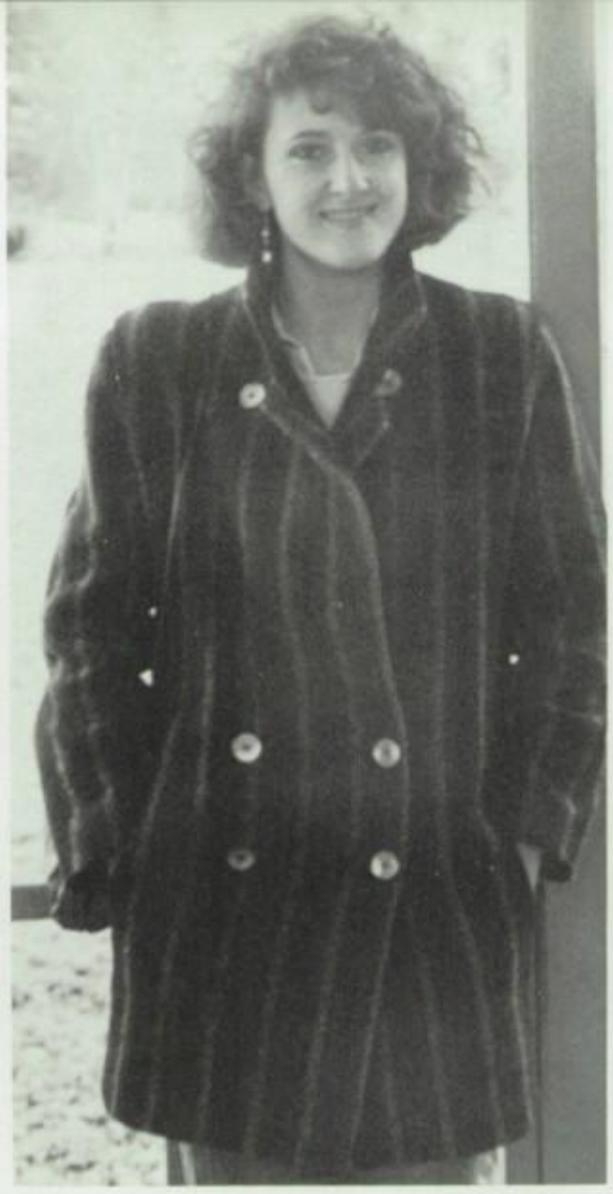
The Negative Side

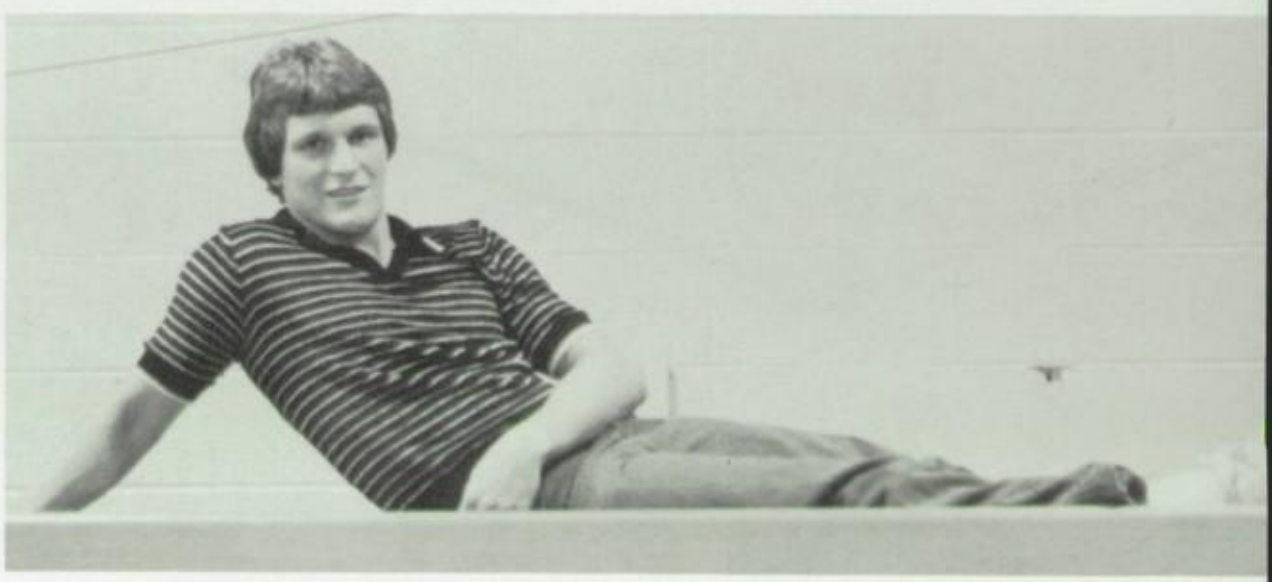
Have you ever considered what photographers do? They have gone out in the pouring rain to get those terrific football shots, they run along side the basketball players to get that dazzling layin and go to all the sporting events on their own time just to get that special shot.

This is only the beginning. Many times after school, you may catch a glimpse of a photographer getting a picture of a teacher or staff members and so forth. It seems a photographer's work is never done. Like at Homecoming who do you see participating in class events? Certainly not a photographer as they have pictures to take.

One advantage of being a photographer is you do get a front row seat at the assemblies because they take the pictures of the rally, Homecoming court and dance team. But still that isn't much for being a photographer.

This year's photos are creative with the talents of 10 photographers. They included Ed Asquith, Darren Britton, Mark Helton, Bob Johnson, Tamra Johnson, Greg Johnson, Terry Player, Tom Schneider, Janet Vrvilo and Dave Evans.





1. Junior Janet Vrvilo gives us that casual look. 2. Tom Schneider kicks back and catches those rays? in the dead of winter. 3. "Yeah" ! I know I'm sexy" states Mark Helton. 4. When not taking pictures, Bob Johnson can be seen studying. 5. Santa's little helper, Ed Asquith, knows if you've been bad or good.

Student Leaders serve diligently

Originality, determination and lots of hard work are what makes student government tick.

The 1984-85 Associated Student Body Officers are as follows: President-Jacob Menashe; First Vice-President-Trina Roberts; Second Vice-President-Deanna Slyter; Third Vice-President- Julie Dunford; Secretary-LaDonna Elkins; Treasurer-Bev Heskiss.

Throughout the year, these six hard-working individuals assisted Mr. Dick Lund organize and run extra-Curricular activities, House, Senate and IOPC meetings.

Marc Turner, our student Representative to the School Board, did an outstanding job communicating student feelings and concerns to the Board.

With this routine choreographed to "I'm Free", "There's No Stoppin' Us", and Holdin' out for a Hero", the team captured 1st place in the Large Division. In the months to follow the Hi C's performed this routine at the PIL Dance Classic where they won "Best Kickline" and "Greatest Originality".

Following "There's No Stoppin' Us" the Hi C's headed for "Space Odyssey", choreographed to "Twilight Zone", "Earth Space", "Time Machine", and "Meco's Theme". With this excellent routine the HiC's spun into 1st place for the 4th year in a row at the Metropolitin Dance Festival and also received Costume Award. The team ended their awesome season by winning 1st place in the OSHDDA and being awarded with Inspection Award. In continuing honor, seniors Robin Turner and Debbie Funrue made the All-State team.

The Awesome Eagle Show Band

The Awesome Eagle Show Band underwent many changes this year; the beginning of which was new songs and formations they learned for the field show. They spent long summer days, weekends and after school practices achieving perfection.

The band also underwent a change of clothing. Specially designed uniforms were purchased by this group. The new outfits added a fresh look to their performances. After a considerable amount of fundraising, the band managed to pay off this major purchase.

The band also welcomed a new assistant band director, Alan Mair. He is a graduate of Lewis and Clark College and a professional musician, who is now in charge of the Jazz and Symphonic bands.

The band participated in two major competitions. The first was the Pacific Coast Marching Band Championships where they placed 3rd and next was the University of Oregon Festival of Bands where they placed 4th.

The band performed during half-time at home football games and the Pep band at home basketball games. The Wind Ensemble, Symphonic and Jazz bands presented concerts throughout the year. Combined bands performed at graduation and the Show Band competed in the Festival of Bands and the Rose parade.

Along with Darrel Dyer and Alan Mair, Kris Harper and Drum Majors Terry Smith and Maelynn Runells added to the success of this hard working and dedicated group.

Colorguard

During July, members of the CHS Colorguard spent four days attending a United Spirit Association camp at OSU. These long, hot days were spent learning various flag routines, sharpening skills and making friends. Centennial received first place in large division competition. They also received a spirit stick and an excellence plaque for points accumulated during their stay. Out of about 200 girls, junior Mendy Carrick was chosen as Super Sensational for outstanding talent and enthusiasm, which is a great honor.

Pre-season practice began the last week of August. New routines and formations had to be learned for upcoming competitions. Rehearsals continued after school and on weekends.

The Colorguard is a very important part of the band. They supply a variety of eye catching colors and interesting props to make overall performances exciting.

Pam Shields and Allison Spack are responsible for the development of these very talented individuals.

FBLA

This year's Aerie had a very good turnout a total of seventeen members. Aerie publishes students creative works including poems, stories, photographs and ink drawings. They do their own editing, typing and layouts, which are inserted once a year in the Talon and are included in their own book in the spring. Tim Whitfield president states, "Aerie gives the students a chance to strut their stuff."

Future Business Leaders of America had a good turnout also this year. FBLA is a national organization which gives students the opportunity to learn more about the American Free Enterprise system. FBLA takes part in community business and gives students a chance to compete on different business related activities to progress in their career skills. Teri Burman, president of FBLA, summarizes the year by saying "I'm pleased with the amount of involvement our members showed this year."

DECA

DECA, Distributive Education Clubs of America, is a student organization that has existed here at Centennial for many years. DECA is the only national student organization operating through the nation's schools to attract individuals to careers in marketing, merchandishing, and management.

This year DECA has a new advisor, Mrs. Ann Saunders. She replaced Mr. Dan Oldham as the marketing instructor and therefore also inherited the position of DECA advisor.

Each year DECA is the group to thank for the Christmas formal. They put a lot of effort into the dance. DECA also participates in several competitions throughout the year. As you can see DECA is a very distinguished club. Copy and Layout by Karen Sheldon

Heliaca's President Paul Steward, along with the other active members, brought new life into Centennial's National Honor Society. Many new activities were introduced this past year.

To encourage members to participate a point system, reflecting involvement, was adopted. Ways in which points could be earned ranged from selling popcorn at sporting events to tutoring during lunch. The reward for these activities was a club sponsored party at the end of the year.

Along with the new activities, Heliaca kept its' tradition of the Red Cross blood drive. This has always been the clubs major contribution to the community. Overall Heliaca was a very busy club this past year. Copy and Layout by Karen Sheldon

Thespians-

Once again the Thespians Drama Club represented Centennial with great pride. The student leaders were President, Kirk Mouser; Vice President, Lori Hartung; Secretary, Shannon Mullison; PT. Secretary, Lynette Birchmier; Historian/Photographer, Jamie Creech and Advisor, Mrs. Janet Mouser. The Thespians were given credit for their successful performances of "Guys and Dolls," "Flowers for Algernon," "The Cave," "Adaption," "Alice," and "Hansel and Gretel." Individual Thespians members were also highly accredited at the Mt. Hood Conference and the Mt. Hood One Act Play Festival.

For Parlando, this has been a "learning year," according to advisor Kathy Teyler. The officers were Pres. Lynnette Ford,- VP., John Dunbar- Sec., Jodi Jacobsen- Treas., Evan Sass and AD Marc Turner. Through out the season they competed at Linfield College, Willamette University, Glenco HS, Beaverton HS, Western, and District at U of O.

International Club

International Club, Centennial's foreign language organization, made good use of the 1984-85 school year with its numerous activities. The seven-member club sponsored a Columbian child, Luz Alba, through the Christain Children's Fund. They were also busy participating in fundraisers such as candy sales and the Eaglefest Dance. Hosting some activities during National Foreign Language Week rounded out their involvement.

According to President Martha Kresek, the club worked very hard this year and had some very dedicated members. She went on to say, "We hope that our membership will increase and with it, our activities." Copy and Layout by Martha Walker Photography by Darren Britton.

Every Tuesday, from 2:30 - 3:30 p.m., the computer lab was filled with students interested in learning as much as possible about computers. These students were members of Centax, the computer club at CHS. To be admitted to the club, prospective members must have had or been enrolled in a computer science class and also pass an oral computer proficiency quiz. This year's members were interested in learning new computer languages. Mr. Gary Cramer, advisor, seemed very pleased by the club's progress.

The Chess Team schedule was a very busy one with dual matches being played against Estacada, Sam Barlow, Gresham, and Parkrose. The players also competed in single matches with Milwaukie, Rex Putnam, Clackamas, and Oregon City. Mr. Ellsworth Vieira, stated, "The members were all new to chess competition. Although they lost all their matches, they nevertheless will all be returning next year. Copy and Layout by Martha Walker. Photography by Mark Helton and Ed Asquith

Students Begin Construction

The building construction class has 18 people in it, and is split up into 2 classes. The address of the house is 3626 SW 16th Court, Gresham, OR. The house is a single floor, 2 car garage 2 bath, and 1600 sq. feet. The price is determined by the school board. Mr. Jensen, the teacher, feels it is a very needed class as it helps them prepare for a vocational trade.

Rally has lots of originality

The Varsity Winter Rally began their season in Tacoma, Washington, at the United Spirit Association (USA) camp at the end of July.

Juniors Debbie Darling, Sandi Obrist, Suzy Simonis and seniors Kathy McMinds, Jenny Persell and Trina Roberts made up this squad which returned from camp with four superior ribbons, a spirit stick and a superior trophy.

"They put their talents and ideas together to become a squad with lots of originality," stated Varsity Rally advisor Debbie Dube.

Fall Rally — 'Lots of spirit, smiles

The 1984 Varsity Fall Rally consisted of seniors LaDonna Elkins, Linda Johnson, Cristi Mattias, Kathleen Monahan, Deanna Slyter and junior Angie Marvin made up this talented squad.

Bringing home four superior ribbons and superior trophy and a spirit stick from the NCA (National Cheerleaders Association) camp marked the beginning of a successful season.

"They were a great squad to work with. There was a lot of spirit and smiles," stated advisor Debbie Dube.

J.V. fall rally adds spirit and support

The 1984 JV Fall Rally did a super job this season leading and supporting their JV Football and Soccer teams.

The six girls were selected in early April and practiced new routines and cheers until the end of the school year. Practice resumed again in mid August and ended in mid November.

"Even though no special rally camps or clinics were attended, the season went really well," commented advisor Patty Mott.

This year's fall rally members were: Kelli Bailey, Kim Everett, Dollie Hawkins, Tammy Reynolds, Lisa Sanders, and Molly Wiemer.

Winter rally keeps on cheering

This year's 1984-85 Winter Rally consisted of six hard working girls who cheered on their Basketball team and helped bring forth many well earned victories.

"The season went and progressed really well," commented Mrs. Mott, "And I really enjoyed being the rally advisor."

The girls were selected in early April and continued practice through the month of June. Practice resumed again in October and continued until the end of February.

In November,the girls attended a one day clinic in Gladstone to learn new cheers and routines.

This year's rally squad members were: Lori Holland, Janet Jordan, Molly Melvin, Dena Paige, Barbie Penberthy, and Bobbi Rust.

Frosh bring forth spirit

The Freshman girls rally squad, led by advisor Tammy Betts, helped produce another winning season for their freshman boys teams. The six girls were chosen in early September of 1984 and offered their spirit and support the whole 1984-85 school year.

This year's rally members consisted of: Angie Holden, Noelle Gayrall, Colleen Peterson, Lorena Metzger, Shawna Britton, and Oniko Varssandar.

Freshmen - Class of 1988

Class advisors-Nancy Gaughen and Martin McClain.

For the class of '88, it was a big step up into high school, but having great spirit pulled them through.

Even though the class placed last in Homecoming, they put on a terrific effort. One thing they can be extra proud of is their first place Homecoming skit which was excellent.

The first President for the class was Bryan Walls who did a great job. The other super officers were Vice-President-Chris Kruse; Secretary-Kari Dooley; Wendy Kinyon-Treasurer. The two Senators were Susan Holt and Scott Payne.

Jeff Berg was named Class Turkey and Tammy Travnick was picked Christmas Princess. The Advisors were Mrs. Nancy Gaughen and Mr. Martin McClain.

Shaded memories of the Sophomore class

This year's Sophomore Class showed the meaning of teamwork. Through hard work, the spirited class took a first in the office decorations, a second on the float competition and participated in numerous class events during Homecoming.

Following the effective leadership of President-John Dunbar; Vice-President-Steve Poole; Secretary-Kathy Blucher; Treasurer-Evan Sass; Senator-Janet Jordan and Senator-Tina Black, the class ended Homecoming week having a total of 257.5 points putting them in second place behind the Seniors.

The Sophomores also did many service projects and planned fundraisers which will be held in the future.

Their advisors are the "unknown advisors."

Juniors — Class of 1986

It was a big step up for the class of '86 as they went into their Junior year. Finally being real upperclassmen brought on a lot of new things. Planning a successful Junior-Senior Prom was just one of the things this class had to do.

Ramon Montehermoso spent his second year as class president and Cam Strahm got vice-president as a write-in. Other officers who did a super job were Secretary Cindy Hopkins, Treasurer Michelle Dittman and Senators Mary Foster and Cristin Mead.

John Stuthard was named Mr. Turkey for the class and Julie Drew was chosen as Christmas Princess. Even though they had bad luck by coming in 3rd place during Homecoming, the Junior class took great pride in making the winning float. Class advisors were Carolyn Estcourt and Nancy Hoevet.

Senior Banquet

Seniors have a Senior banquet "Once in a Lifetime." So, the most is made of this event-filled evening. At 7 p.m. on the night of April 26, 200 Seniors stormed the doors of the Holiday Inn at the Airport. The evening began with a buffet dinner and comedian J.P. Linde. Character awards were given out. Carl Munsey and Marc Turner did a presentation entitled "Memories". A slide show, made by Sally Kane and Karen Sheldon, was presented. The finale was a dance. Chairpeople were Bev Heskiss and Pam Scholtes!

Baccalaureate

Seniors proudly march in at the start of the Baccalaureate. 6) Seniors spruce themselves up before entering The Grotto. 7) Guest speaker Gary Walls really inspired the class with his speech. 8) These seniors show their mixed emotions, from happy to sad. 9) Excitedly, Michelle Coburn, Martha Walker and Karen Sheldon wait for Baccalaureate to begin.

Class of 1985

The Class of '85! For 356 seniors, these five words were music to their ears.

Led by President-Lana Obriist; Vice-President-Sonya Brandt; Secretary-Pam Scholtes; Treasurer-Stephenie Quimby; Senators-Howard Hoyle and Michele Blucher, the class of '85 became "A Class by Itself."

Class colors were selected to be Lavendar and Silver. Class flower was the Orchid and the class song was "Remember the Feeling by Chicago.

The winning Homecoming class had Kelley McKinney voted as Queen. LynDee Lindstrom became the 1984 Christmas Queen.

The long road of 1985 nears its end . . .

. . . as students of today become shades of the past . . .

. . . with only one thing on their minds.

The school year of 1985 has passed in what seemed to be just a blink of an eye. So through this yearbook, we've hoped to capture the year's memories in pictures and in words so what seemed to have gone by so fast will not be forgotten. Our goal was to freeze those special moments, so in years to come, some picture will bring a smile to your face and a tear to your eye.

In "Shades of "85", we have covered all the bright spots as well as the shadows. We've developed a book to last forever and keep all your memories in clear focus. Through the year, we caught you and your friends in the middle of the act, not to mention during your best performances. We photographed every smile, tear and heartache, and put a photo-finish on the good times, the best times. We kept track of all the little things as well as the big, so in the future your thoughts of today will be just as detailed as they are at this very moment. And when you look back at your school years and feel the pain and the laughter all over again, you'll think of the "Shades of '85" and a smile will come to your face.

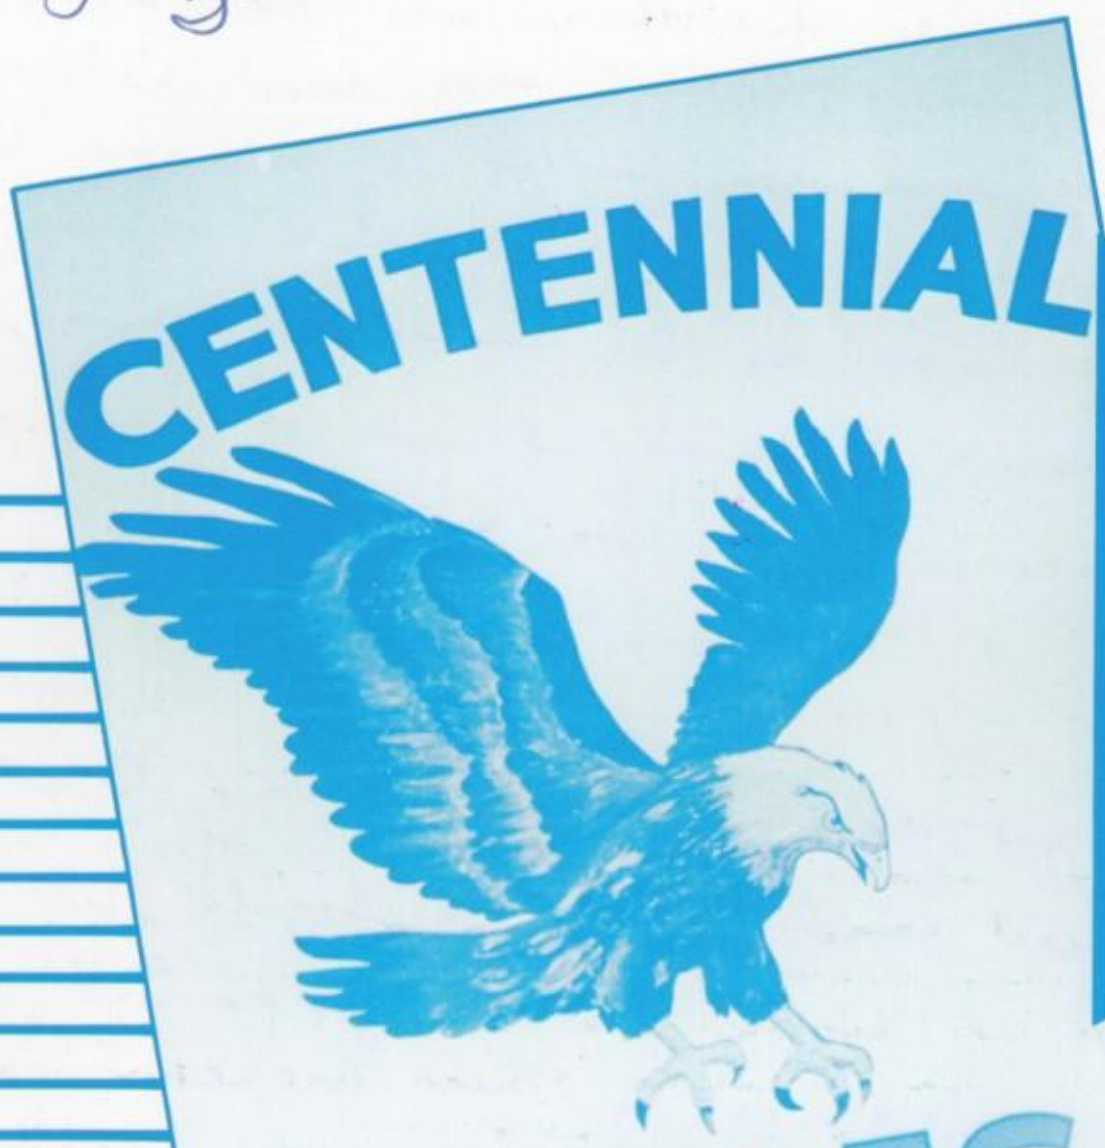
Kelley,

Where do I start to tell you what you meant to my senior year. You made my senior the best year of my life, you changed my life forever. My senior year is full of memories of you and I. I think of ijou as that cute girl in my fourth and fifth period class I wanted to get to know to the girl I wanted to marry someday. As I write this there are so many visions of ~~you~~ you running through my head. Calling you because Janelle said you wanted to ask me to the Christmas formal and you were still too shy to ask me. I think of you as the mama of our family development group. I think of you as that night at Janelle Johnson's that we first kissed, or picking out my tuxedo at Clackamas, or ~~at~~ New Year's Eve, or Valentines Day at the airport, or the Christmas formal. There are so many visions of you that warm my heart and make me smile. We have had the best of times and they haven't stopped yet, I hope they never do. There are some not so great times we've had but they aren't important once they're over, and are forgotten over time. But my memories of my senior year will not go away and because of you that's good. You make my life complete and happy. I love you more than words can express, so I hope you know that I love you much more than I've ever told you. I hope this is something we can both look back on later in life and smile and remember together. So thanks for making me so happy and helping me grow up a bit, and thanks for thanks for still being with me through times when I don't deserve you. I ♡ U. !!!

Love infinitely!
David Huffman

Kelly,
You were one of my favorites on dance team & I really missed you last year. I think you are a total sweet-heart. Love, Gina

Hey cutie,
I miss you. You're one the greatest girls I know. I miss you. Call me Take care. Love ya, Ed 659-2909



Kelly,
Youre such a cute little weebly whatever that means. You better take care of my best friend because he is my best friend. I know I'll keep in touch.
Good luck

Kelly,
Thanks for being such a good friend for the past few yrs. I'll see you often at the bank, so I'll stop to say "hi" sometime. Have a great life and be careful out there.
Love
Steve

Kelly-
Hey sweetie - its too bad that we've lost touch. We should go out sometime. Call me. I miss you.
Love you,
Karen

Kel~
Wow! My own personal teller! Hey! Get me some extra interest! Maybe a few thousand or two! How's that sound? I think it's a wonderful idea Musey!
Well, baby! I know I'll see you, so you take care when I'm not around! K?
Love ya,
Jen

Kelly - thanks for being such a good friend I'm really glad I got to know you!
Hay write me while I'm in the army
Friends allways
